Reckless Driving Charges Lodged In Strike

Both Sides Scheduled To Meet Today

By Armon Williams

BANGOR—An attempt to reach agreement of future picketing at Blue Ridge Textile plants will be made at a 4 p.m. meeting today.

Company attorney Edmund Turzo said last night that officials "on both sides" have agreed to attend the meeting.

Meanwhile Blue Ridge plant superintendent William D. Scott told The Daily Record in a statement released through Turtzo that "greater numbers of employes are returning to work each day."

Said Scott: "The company is greatly encouraged by the harmony and willingness of employes to establish and continue good relationships."

Scott said that since "the fear of any riotous acts on the part of pickets has been removed many persons who previously had not reported to work are now reporting."

Picket Lines

He told The Record that picket lines are being conducted "in an orderly fashion." He said the "assistance of constant police protection" has been "most helpful."

Turtzo said there were no results from the appeal to ban picketing. A petition asking for the ban was presented in Northampton County Court on Tuesday before Judge William Barthold.

The attorney released on "open leter" to employes inviting them to send representatives to management. He said they would receive "prompt consideration."

He maintained that employes do not have a "bargaining agent." Turtzo pointed to testimony by Joseph Rader, Textile Workers Union of America, before a National Labor Relations Board hearing in Easton to support this.

At that hearing Rader admitted that the union does not have the support of a "majority of Blue Ridge workers" and was "advising" rather than acting as an agent for the workers on strike.

POINT OF FULL RETURNS on Tuesday night was the chart set up at The Daily Record office. During the night a tight-packed crowd waited for latest returns to be posted. Most of the time it seemed to observers that there were more people looking on then there had been in any of Monroe County's 35 voting district election houses during the day. Tornadoes Continue To Hit Midwest

By The Associated Press

A NEW outbreak of tornadoes kept storm-buffeted sections of the midcontinent on the alert yesterday.

Twisters were sighted in Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma, continuing the violent weather pattern that has claimed 51 lives so far this week. Tornadoes killed 14 in southeastern Missouri Tuesday and 37 in the Kansas City area Monday.

Yesterday's twisters danced harmlessly in the air or touched the ground only to spend their fury on open farm land, according to Weather Bureau reports.

Weather forecasters said a new low pressure system has formed in Texas, providing the necessary ingredients for violent thunderstorms and tornadoes in the Southern Plains and lower Missouri Valley.

Oklahoma

Numerous twisters were sighted in eastern Oklahoma and extreme southeastern Kansas. The storm activity spread eastward and other tornadoes were sighted at Lamar and near Sedalia and Steelville in Missouri.

St. Louis was placed under a two-hour alert after the tornado was sighted at Steelville, apparently moving in the direction of the metropolis.

Relentless storms dumped four inches of rain in Newkirk, Okla. Heavy rains and strong winds in southern Illinois caused flooding in several communities and heavy damage to the area's fruit crop. At least 50 families were forced from their homes in Marion and Harrisburg.

Locally damaging wind storms swept over the Tennessee Valley.

Clearing skies and southerly winds warmed parts of the Midwest, Chicago had an 85 reading, highest of the year so far. Readings in the 90s were common in the Deep South.

But a surge of Canadian air rolled over the Northern Plains and upper Mississippi Valley. Afternoon temperatures were in the 40s and 50s. Frost warnings were issued for most of the area from Montana and Wyoming into northwest Minnesota.

Showers dampened much of the West, except California and the Southwest. Thunderstorms scattered hail across parts of the Rockies and plateau states.

Cool air over the mid-Atlantic states held afternoon temperatures in the 60s.

AFL-CIO Adopts Union Funds Code

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP)—The AFL-CIO today adopted a code that President George Meany said would have "very definitely prevented" such misuse of union funds as is charged to Teamsters boss Dave Beck.

The code contains a set of accounting principles calling for regular audits. It bars union loans to union officers for their personal profit or to firms with which a union has labor contract dealings.

Meany said the code, adopted unanimously by the AFL-CIO Executive Council, was being recommended for adoption by all the federation's 140 unions. He said many already have broad financial safeguards, but others will have to amend their constitutions to adopt necessary changes.

The code was prepared by the federation's Ethical Practices Committee with the help of union secretary-treasurers and five private accounting firms.

Basis

The code is based on the stated promise that unions are in business to improve wages, hours and working conditions for members and not for making money. It says union money should be handled accordingly and not for personal profit of union officials.

Meanwhile, a group of top Teamsters Union officials, headed by the union's Secretary-Treasurer John F. English, discussed plans to seek Beck's ouster as president because of the Senate Rackets Committee charges he misused large sums of the union's funds.

English, who talked freely about his plans last night after being named to Beck's place as an AFL-CIO vice president, would not talk to newsmen today. But it was learned he was consulting with fellow Teamsters leaders on a "Beck must go" campaign and union clean-up.

The plan of the English group is to demand that Beck convene the Teamsters executive board soon, within the next week or so. If he refuses, the group intends to assemble the board anyway to demand Beck's resignation.

Despite the new AFL-CIO code's declaration against unions making loans to firms with which they bargain, Meany told newsman he thought it was all right for a union to lend money to a firm temporarily to keep it in business and save union members' jobs.

Legal Action Revealed In Bangor Issue

By Leonard Randolph

BANGOR — Reckless driving charges have been formally lodged against the alleged drivers of two trucks which crashed through picket lines at Blue Ridge Textile plants two weeks ago.

Drivers were identified as William D. Scott and Gordon Frey. Scott is Blue Ridge plant superintendent and Frey is a plant employe.

Borough night police officer Walter Heard said last night that informations against Scott and Frey were filed with Justice of the Peace Raymond Trayes in Bangor.

Trayes said no date has been est for the hearing, as yet.

Date

The incident from which the charges grow occurred on Thursday, May 9, in front of the Messinger St. plant of the textile company.

Two trucks—one of them a tractor-trailer—drove through a picket line and a crowd at the scene. Observers and patrolman Heard said after the incident that several persons "narrowly escaped" injury or death when the trucks drove through the crowd.

In a subsequent report to Burgess Hayden Pritchard, Heard said that in his opinion "the method by which the trucks were driven out of the parking area was highly dangerous and it's amazing that no one was killed or injured."

Fine Runs Far Behind Opponent

By The Associated Press

TWO veteran Democratic mayors won handily, but former Republican Gov. John S. Fine went down to defeat in Tuesday's off-year primary elections.

Fine lost out in his bid for a political comeback in Luzerne County, whre he had held control of the GOP organization for 30 years. He polled only 33,891 votes in the race for nomination to Luzerne County Court, well behind the majorities of over 50,000 each racked up by his organization-backed opponents.

Pittsburgh's Mayor David L. Lawrence and Mayor James T. Hanlon of Scranton, both won Democratic renomination for unprecedented fourth terms. With one district missing, Lawrence polled 53,257 votes against former Congressman Theodore L. Moritz, who got 11,903. Lawrence will run against John A. Drew, former Allegheny County Common Pleas Judge, in November. Drew won the Republican mayoralty nomination over Joseph A. McArdle, former Democratic city councilman.

Scranton

Hanlon won 13,819 votes against his Democratic opponent, Edward Lavelle, who had 2,118. Harry E. Lewis is the Republican nominee for mayor of Scranton. He defeated two GOP opponents, Thomas Evans and Daniel Beynon.

With no statewide contests and a dearth of interesting issues, only about 20 per cent of the voters turned out. An exception was in Luzerne County, where some 60 per cent of the eligibles went to the polls.

Fifty-seven candidates for judgeships, including 45 incumbents, were selected. Many of the sitting judges cross-filed and will be unopposed in the fall.

In a special election in Montour County, Democrat Donald Whitenight defeated Republican William E. Booth to regain the state House seat he lost last November to the late John R. Quigg.

House Passes Bus Legislation

HARRISBURG, May 22 (AP) — School buses would have to be equipped with flashing red signal lights, front and rear, under a bill passed unanimously by the House today and sent to the Senate.

The measure amends the vehicle code to require that one such lamp be visible from the front and one from the rear. The lamps would have to be mounted "as high as practicable" upon the body of the bus. The measure, passed 170-0, was sponsored by Reps. Markley Re-Lehigh and Kornick D-Fayette.

Ike Declares Fight For Budget

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP) — President Eisenhower declared today, with a glint of fire in his eye, that he'll fight to the end for his slash-threatened budget.

Eisenhower told a news conference a spending reduction voted yesterday by the House Appropriations Committee would "cut directly into defense"—in the vital fields of planes and guided missiles.

The President said he would give more enthusiastic support in next year's congressional elections to those Republican lawmakers who support his program than to those who buck it.

And he served notice that, in trying to get his program enacted, he'll work with "sympathetic" lawmakers outside the GOP leadership — but not, he emphasized, without letting the Republican leaders know that he's doing so.

Comments

Eisenhower's comments came less than 24 hours after his second radio-TV address in a week on behalf of his $71,800,000,000 budget, which a number of Republicans as well as Democrats in both houses of Congress have been voting to whittle sharply.

He said public opinion, as reflected in letters and telegrams to the White House, has been swinging toward support of his spending program. The White House said later that such reaction to his talk last night has been favorable, 9-1. This speech dealt specifically with the $3,865,000,000 foreign aid bill.

Budget and related matters dominated Eisenhower's meeting with nearly 200 newsmen.

Manner

The President's manner was phatic rather than angry. He seemed to enjoy putting some of his firmer views on the record. He commented to an aide, in fact, "Well, that was a short half-hour," when the session ended.

About the only nondomestic matter of importance that came up was disarmament, and here too Eisenhower spoke with emphasis.

He said Americans must be sure "we are not being picayunish" — that "we ought to have an open mind" on Russian proposals.

To some it sounded as if he might be throwing down the views expressed recently by Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, who said the Russians can't be trusted to abide by any disarmament pact.

However, Eisenhower went on to say, in this same vein, that the United States must insist on ironclad guarantees in dealing with "a government which has a history of breaking of treaties."

Smith Claims Girl Alive With Friend

HACKENSACK, N.J., May 22 (AP) —Edgar Smith testified today he left Victoria Zielinski, 15, in a Mahwah gravel pit in the company of his friend, Donald Hommell, hours before her body was found there March 5.

Smith, 23, an ex-Marine who is charged with the bludgeon slaying of the Ramsey girl, took the stand in his own defense at his murder trial.

He spoke in a clear voice and at one point raised his voice almost to a shout when he charged his friend with being present at the gravel pit during the night of March 5.

At another point in his testimony Hommell was brought into the court room and seated so that he could face the defendant. Hommell glared at Smith but Smith only glanced at the Ramsey man.

Activities

Before a hushed court Smith traced his activities from the night of March 3 before the Mahwah murder until his arrest about 11:30 p.m., March 5, at the home of his mother-in-law in Ridgewood.

Much of his testimony followed the pattern his attorney, Jon E. Selser, indicated it would at the trial's opening.

Smith, 23, was called after Bergen County Judge Arthur J. O'Dea dismissed a motion for a directed verdict of acquittal.

The motion was made by Smith's attorney, John E. Selser, when the state concluded its case after calling its 33rd witness to the stand.

Claim

Selser claimed "There is no evidence to support a jury issue of a first degree murder case," adding:

"Whoever did this thing has not been brought before justice."

County Prosecutor Guy W. Calissi argued however, "The fact that the defendant said in his statement to police that 'I did it' is sufficient to defeat Mr. Selser's motion."

The 60-page unsigned statement, purportedly made to police by Smith, was entered yesterday into evidence. It quoted Smith as saying:

"I must have been the one who really did it."

Administration Drums Up Aid Support

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP)—The Eisenhower administration appears to have drummed up some fresh support and enthusiasm for its $3,865,000,000 foreign aid program in the last 24 hours.

Secretary of State Dulles carried the fight for the program to the Senate Foreign Relations committee today and won the praise of several senators for his "persuasive" presentation.

One of the committee members, Sen. Capehart (R-Ind), said that "for the first time in 10 years I am going to vote for the support this program because it is sound in principle."

Reaction

The White House announced public reaction to President Eisenhower's speech in defense of his mutual security policies last night was running "better than 9-1" in favor of the administration.

Despite these apparent gains, however, the big foreign aid bill still faces a battle in Congress. Demands for substantial cuts in foreign aid and spending persist and are supported by many leading members of Congress.

One of these was Sen. Byrd (D-Va), chairman of the Senate Finance Committee. He called today for "a complete blueprint" of future foreign aid spending. Byrd said in a statement the President omitted from his nationwide-radio-TV address last night the fact that more than six billion dollars of unexpended balances remain from previous foreign aid appropriations.

During the course of his arguments before the foreign relations committee today, Dulles said he still believes in the philosophy that if you don't spend money to help your friends abroad you may eventually "have to spend blood."

Haiti Moves Toward Order

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti, May 22 (AP)—Haiti's military government issued fire-without-warning orders to police today in an effort to break up looting, arson and sabotage.

It banned political meetings and demonstrations. The aim was to force this Caribbean Negro republic back into a regime of order after six months of turbulence and government upsets.

Brig. Gen. Leon Cantave, the mild army chief who yesterday sent home the seven members of a governing Executive Council and set up army rule, was accused by the ousted councilmen of being an outlaw "in open rebellion against the executive authority." He was faced with strikes and lockouts in Port au Prince which crippled business.

Tactics

Strike tactics have overthrown three Haitian governments since Dec. 12, but there was no indication the resistance movement was spreading to the five provinces outside Port au Prince.

On the contrary, the new regime was reported to have been accepted with hilarious rejoicing at Cap Haitien, the main northern port, where a "Committee of Public Safety" had set up an anti-council movement.

In the capital itself, most newspapers also acclaimed the army's action.

Slash Made In Operating Funds

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP)—The Senate, after a lot of talk about presidential helicopters, passed today a slashed appropriations bill to operate the White House and top executive agencies.

The bill carries $16,010,370 which is $4,911,500 less than President Eisenhower requested and $11,000 less than the House voted. The measure now goes back to the House.

Graham's Pitcher Causes Stir

NEW YORK, May 22 (AP)—A squabble over a nightly pitcher of ice water on the lectern at evangelist Billy Graham's crusade was reported settled tonight.

Yielding to union demands, crusade managers have agreed to pay two stagehands a reported $15 per night. All the stagehands have to do is to provide the water pitcher and a glass, a Graham spokesman said.

Coty Sets Mark For Leaders

PARIS, May 22 (AP) — President Rene Coty in effect gave warring French political leaders a 10-day deadline today to settle their differences and choose a new premier to succeed Socialist Guy Mollet.

Mollet turned in his resignation after 16 months in office—a post-war record—when the National Assembly by a 250-213 vote, rejected his belt-tightening program to finance the campaign against nationalist rebellion in Algeria.

Abel Fears Attempt

UNIONTOWN, Pa., May 22 (AP) — I. W. Abel, secretary-treasurer of the United Steelworkers, said today an attempt will be made "within the next year or year and a half to destroy the labor movement."

Sex Offender Admits Crime

WATERBURY, Conn., May 22 (AP)—George J. Davies, 38, convicted sex offender, confessed today to slaying two girls between May 9 and 13. He choked them first and then stabbed them with a screwdriver, said State's Atty. William B. Fitzgerald.

Davies, good-looking and slightly built, told police he killed Gaetane Boivin, 17, a French-Canadian girl on May 9, and Brenda Jane Doucette, 9, on May 13.

Located

Brenda's body was found first and on Monday police announced Davies' confession. Gaetane's body was found yesterday. Police said Davies finally broke down and confessed to this slaying at 1 a.m. today, but it wasn't made public until some 13 hours later.

Gaetane's fully clothed body was found only three miles from the place where Brenda's body was found. Brenda had been stabbed 22 times. Three more than Gaetane.

Leader Blasts PMA As Part Of Budget Cut

HARRISBURG, May 22 (AP)—Gov. Leader said tonight the Pennsylvania Manufacturers' Assn. is behind Republican plans to slash his budget by 94½ million dollars.

He called on rank-and-file Republican lawmakers to refuse to be used as what he termed "lackeys and lickspittles" for the PMA.

"I know there are Republican senators and House members who privately are disgusted with this dictation," he said in a statement.

Chairman Wood (R-Lancaster) declined comment but Rep. Johnson, House GOP floor leader, replied that The Associated Press carried an account of budget reductions last Friday.

"Nobody from the PMA dictated anything to us," he told a newsman.

Lawmakers

The $1,107,000,000 general appropriation bill reached the desk of the lawmakers in printed form during the day.

Wood said his committee would formally approve the measure tomorrow and place it in position for floor debate next Monday when Democrats were expected to offer amendments.

The House Republican caucus also has fixed Monday for a closed door review of the huge spending measure.

The Senate took notice of the GOP spending plan with a rousing debate on what Sen. Barr, Democratic state chairman, called Republican "steamroller tactics."

Hundreds Of Protests Bring Rematch Of TV Bloomgarden - Snodgrass Battle Of Bones

NEW YORK, May 22 (AP)—The two contestants in the disputed "battle of the bones" will be rematched on NBC-TV's "Twenty One" quiz program Monday, June 3.

This was announced today by NBC and Barry & Enright Productions, producers of "Twenty-One."

The contestants are Hank Bloomgarden, champion, and Jim Snodgrass, challenger.

Authorities

"Because of the complicated situation, details of the June 3 rematch must still be worked out," NBC said.

NBC said the rematch was decided upon after Encyclopedia Britannica authorities declared there was an inconsistency in quiz answers approved by them for a biological question on last Monday's show. The Encyclopedia authorities decide in advance what answers will be accepted as correct.

The controversy developed after each contestant was asked to name the five groups of bones in the spinal column.

Snodgrass gave "sacrum" as his first answer and was ruled incorrect. Bloomgarden listed cervical, thoracic, lumbar, sacral and coccyx, and was acclaimed by Jack Barry, master of ceremonies, as winner.

But hundreds of viewers, most of them doctors, telephoned and telegraphed protests.

They said "sacrum" and "coccyx" are both nouns, and that if one were correct, the other was also.

The announced victory for Bloomgarden was worth $73,500 to him on top of $52,500 he had won previously.

Stock Market Slips To Lower Level

NEW YORK, May 22 (AP)—The stock market eased downward today as trading volume slipped to its lowest level in more than a month.

There was no particular selling pressure in any group and the decline was uneventful. A number of secondary stocks posted gains.

Reports from steel industry leaders, gathered at the American Iron & Steel Institute meeting, of a pickup in new orders had no apparent effect on shares of the industry. They declined and, with most other stocks, their prices were a shade worse at the close than earlier.

Volume dipped to 2,060,000 shares compared with 2,370,000 yesterday and was the lowest since 1,890,000 shares changed hands on April 16.

Average

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks dropped 50 cents to $184.50 with the industrials down 50 cents, the rails down 30 cents and the utilities down 10 cents.

Of 1,155 issues traded, losses outnumbered gains by 521 to 355. There were 57 new highs for 1957 and 29 new lows.

Of the 15 most active stocks, 8 rose, 6 fell and one was unchanged. Of the 15 favorites, five were oils and another was Northern Pacific which has big oil resources and has been accorded some admiring Wall Street comment lately.

The most active stock was Standard Oil (New Jersey), up ⅜ at 63⅜ on 24,300 shares. Second was Northern Pacific, up ⅞ at 46⅞ on 24,000 shares. Third was Bethlehem Steel, off ¼ at 46¾ on 22,600 shares.

Lukens Steel dropped 2 points, General Motors ½, American Cyanamid 1⅛ and United Aircraft ⅛.

On the American Stock Exchange prices were mixed. Volume was 970,000 shares compared with 910,000 yesterday.

Corporate bonds declined in quiet trading.

U. S. Government bonds were irregular in light dealings over the counter.

Interest High In Count For School Board

THERE WAS no "race" in nominations for school director from either party in East Stroudsburg. Two men ran on each ticket with two to be named on each ticket.

All the same present school board members, educators and residents were studying returns yesterday as a "barometer" of "what may happen in the November election" one board member said.

Unofficial returns showed these results:

Democratic ticket—William W. Lee Jr. had 545 votes (by wards, First through Sixth in order: 80-82-100-74-74-135) and Lester G. Abeloff had 361 votes (split 40-56-100-56-47-62).

Republican ticket—Carl Hamill had 424 votes (by wards: 103-81-57-79-45-59) and Robert M. Wright had 345 votes (split; 86-66-57-62-36-38).

Both Hamill and Wright are present members of the school board and of the East Stroudsburg Area Joint Board.

Helping To Keep America Beautiful

Pocono Mountains communities might do well to follow the example set by the City of Pittsburgh in cracking down on "litterbugs."

The one-time "Smoky City," which now prides itself as one of the cleanest cities in the entire country, has put into effect a law making it illegal to throw paper on the streets and sidewalks.

When the rule was first invoked, violators were issued a warning and asked to pick up the paper or other trash and deposit it in a proper container.

Later, however, the city began passing out fines for this infraction and served notice that the small-time "litterbugs" will get the same treatment meted out to major offenders.

This crackdown may seem harsh to most people since the offense is so minor. But it should take only a few arrests to get people to change their old habits. This, after all, is the only way to stop the chronic "litterburg."

A number of readers have commented on the series of recent Daily Record editorials calling attention to the "litterburg" nuisance. By and large, these people have made sincere efforts to keep their own properties looking neat and beautiful, but have run smack against the careless, inconsiderate individual who scatters all kinds of trash along the roadside or on the streets.

Most communities have trash receptacles on their main streets. The state has placed similar containers at public picnic spots. Ice cream stands, roadside restaurants and stores have waste baskets for the convenience of patrons. And trucks make regular pickups of rubbish in the towns. So there is no good reason for marring the beauty of the landscape.

"Keep America Beautiful Inc.," a national public service organization for the prevention of litter, is prevailing upon automobile manufacturers to engineer and install removable travel trash drawers in all new models.

This is a step, but only a step, toward eliminating the "litterbug" menace. The only real progress can be accomplished if and when the public realizes it is the loser when it dumps its rubbish indiscriminately over the beautiful countryside.

We like a voluntary approach to meeting the problem. However, if that fails, stiffer measures should be taken.

Favors Leisurely Study Of Education Aid

The Pennsylvania House of Representatives has officially taken the same view of Governor Leader's college program that many taxpayers have voiced privately: that it's a nice idea, but . . .

Few deny that a college education today holds almost the same position that finishing high school held not many years ago. Nor that the cost of one college-trained child can be a heavy burden, with the result that many youths who could make good use of higher education are forced to get along without it.

The "but" in all this also cannot be denied. Principally this stumbling block rises from the tremendous struggle the Commonwealth already is undergoing to maintain public education through the first 12 years. The burden has been intensified by a growing population, by higher costs for everything, by recognition of the need to pay teachers decently, and most of all by the now-accepted trend shifting the tax emphasis from local to State levels.

As House Majority Leader Johnson observed as the Leader program was shelved, Pennsylvania had better concentrate on doing a good job on the education task already cut out for it, before expanding.

Probably there is real merit in at least some of Governor Leader's package of proposals for scholarships and other State aid of college students. These can be explored by the Joint State Government Commission, as the House has directed. Such leisurely study is a better appoach than a quick grab at a nice idea that could grow into a taxpayer's nightmare.

Robert S. Allen Reports . . .

Cancer, Heart Drugs Show Promise

Washington, May 22 — New drugs are producing remarkable results in treating those two great killers — cancer and heart disease.

Thorough testing of these drugs is still in progress, and their capabilities and limitations await final determination. But on the basis of developments so far, they offer high promise of being effective remedies.

In fact, it's even possible that in some instances these drugs may cure completely.

These are the thrilling hopes held out in a comprehensive report on significant achievements in medical research that will be published as an official document by the Senate Appropriations Committee.

Titled "Highlights of Research Progress for 1956," the 200-page survey was compiled by specialists of the famed National Institutes of Health, Bethesda, Md. In addition to cancer and heart disease, a wide range of major maladies is covered in the detailed study.

Foremost among them are arthritis, diabetes, blindness, deafness, high school pressure, epilepsy, cerebral palsy, allergies.

The report is the first of its kind to be published by the Appropriations Committee. This was decided after thousands of requests were received last year for copies of the testimony of National Institutes authorities on what was transpiring in medical research.

Publication was recommended by Senator Lister Hill (D., Ala.), chairman of the subcommittee in charge of the Institutes' budget. Copies can be obtained by writing him or other senators.

What They Have—Notably impressive in the forthcoming study is the categoric statement that definite gains were made last year in the far-flung battle against cancer and heart diseases.

Following is what the report says on that:

"In 1956, important advances were produced along the whole spectrum of the activities that constitute cancer research . . . Similarly, noteworthy progress was made in the heart disease researches."

The survey stresses that "Surgery and radiation remain the two most effective means of treating cancer."

However, a number of new drugs are cited as promising anti-cancer remedies. Several of them undergoing tests for treating leukemia are particularly referred to. Following are the highlights of the "Cancer Research" portion of the study:

"In developing new anti-cancer drugs, Dr. Boland Hughes, of the Wistar Institute of Anatomy and Biology, has found that injection of a derivative or quinoline and quinoline 4-dihydrochloride caused complete remission of blood cancer lymphoma in 11 out of 12 treated rats.

"Dr. R. K. Robins, New Mexico Highlands University, has found a new compound which selectively damages cancers in tissue culture. This compound, known as 4-aminopyrazolo (3,4-d) pyrimidine, destroyed several types of cancer cells, but had no effect on normal cells.

"Dr. George A. Hyman, a National Cancer Institute grantee, has reported the results of treating human blood cancer, chronic granulocytic leukemia, with the anti-tumor drug myleran. Significant remissions for periods up to 48 months were obtained in 14 out of 21 patients, with restoration of the number of white blood cells to normal.

"Dr. R. H. Follis, University of Utah College of Medicine, found that a new compound known as CB-1348 was beneficial in treatment of chronic leukemia in human patients. The drug was found to be effective, well tolerated, and safe for short periods.

"A National Cancer Institute grantee, Dr. R. H. Blocks, State University of Iowa College of Medicine, has reported the effectiveness of radioactive gold-198 in the treatment of selected cases of inoperable prostatic cancer.

"Among the most recently developed weapons against lung cancer, supervoltage (1000 to 4000 kilovolts) therapy stands out. In a research project reported by Dr. Ruth J. Guttman, Columbia University, a group of 100 patients with advanced inoperable lung cancer were irradiated with dosages to tumor from a 2000-kilovolt machine. Sixty-three showed definite benefit from the radiation therapy."

New developments in treating hypertension are especially pointed out in the report, as follows:

"Encouraging evidence from St. Louis study shows that the usually progressive course of arterial hypertension can often be reversed to normal by prolonged treatment with a combination of two pressure-lowering drugs—hydralazine and hexamethonium. This evidence indicates that these drug-induced reversals may be permanent apparently constituting genuine "cures" in some cases. The research was done by Drs. H. Mitchell Perry and Henry A. Schroeder of Washington University School of Medicine and Barnes Hospital.

"Mecamylamine, a drug recently found to lower blood pressure in animals has now been tested on humans and found to have advantage over related drugs currently used to treat hypertension."

In connection with cancer and heart disease, the study also highlights a significant new "pain killer" that is undergoing extensive tests.

It is "hydroxy-phenyl-morphan," which is described as a "purely synthetic substance, more potent than codeine, as potent as morphine, four times as powerful as Demerol, but with less addiction liability than either."

"This noteworthy chemical accomplishment," continues the report, "constitutes another definite breakthrough in the long train of attempts by chemists to separate pain killing power from addiction liability. Compounds 100 times more effective than morphine have been found recently, and are now being tested as 'new pain killers.'"

(Tomorrow the second part of this series will report what medical research has accomplished in combatting arthritis, diabetes, blindness, deafness, and other major ailments.)

Plan Retirement Project Around Work You'll Enjoy

By Anne Heywood

There's an old saying to the effect that all general statements are wrong—including this one. Just the same, I can't resist the temptation to make a general statement, especially when it comes to the subject of retirement and retirement projects.

This for example:

If you have loved your job all of your working life, then when retirement comes you should figure a way to continue it, perhaps on a part-time basis. But if you have hated your job all of your working life, plan a drastic change for your retirement project.

Oldster Can't Change

"But," people will sometimes say, "it's awfully hard for an oldster to change."

Actually, if they have hated their job all those years, the motive is plenty strong. They're apt to bring to the new field such zest, pep and enthusiasm that they succeed very quickly.

That's how it was with Mr. L. R., whose wife wrote me recently.

"My husband is just wonderful," she began. "He is sixty-seven years old, in perfect health and he has a part-time project which is very successful. In fact, he could expand it to full-time if he wanted to, but we'd rather have the time to relax and have fun.

"We're all so happy for him because, for years, he was really miserable.

Became a Salesman

"You see," she went on, "my husband began as a salesman when we were first married. He didn't like it much, but jobs were not too easy to get then so he took it 'for the time being.'

"Well, along came our family and one thing and another, and the years went by. We soon had so many obligations that he couldn't give up the job he knew for one he didn't know.

"He was just wonderful," she continued. "He never complained, and he did reasonably well.

Watch Repairing Had Always Fascinated Him

Shelled Watch Repairing

"After he retired, he read up on watch repairing which had always fascinated him. Then, practically the day after he finished reading the books, he started his own little watch repair business. He was marvelous at it from the beginning. And why not, as he says. After all, to be able to do a thing he loved took twenty years off his age!"

If watch repairing interests you, send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope, care of this newspaper, and I'll send you a list of good books about it.

Education's Problem: Distinguish Between Acquiring Knowledge And Training For Job

It used to be theory that wars killed off people and that the population thus decreased. Since the last war, the population of most of the world seems to have increased until population experts are not only perplexed by the phenomenon but they are somewhat concerned as to whether it will be possible to feed all who xist. Human beings have such varieties of eating habits and such widespread necessities that although some have too much, others have too little.

So far as the United States is concerned, there seems no immediate danger of starvation. Rather, the danger is that Americans will over-stuff themselves so that they get coronaries from too much cholesterol or diabetes or gall-bladder trouble, all of which come from eating too much of the wrong foods.

So, even if we ate half as much or a third as much, we should still be well off and have nothing to complain about. In fact, we should be better off that way, whereas if the Chinese or the Hindus cut their diets, they would starve.

There are other countries where food is not so plentiful and where nevertheless large numbers of children continue to be born. Population pressures have in the past made wars and revolutions because people fought for food.

In the United States where we have compulsory, general education up to the age of 16 or 18, depending on the state, the year 1960, according to the Population Reference Bureau, will receive the first great wave of the new population. In 1954, more than 4,000,000 American children were born and they will be ready for school in 1960.

Succeeding years have done as well as 1954; therefore the school system everywhere in the United Sates is going to have to find more seats, more building space and probably more teachers. In 1968, according to these statistics, these kids will be moving up to high school and again there will have to be more seats, more teachers, more supervision. And cities and towns will be faced by additional expenses.

Standards of education ought to go up under these circumstances because when this enormous army of children reaches college age, the better colleges will be able to pick and choose, rejecting those who cannot make the grade. Of course, some colleges will lower their standards to attract those who cannot get in elsewhere and will build enormous institutions out of fees. A college always has a choice: to put its money into brains or into brick and mortar.

The cost of education is high, both to the parent who sends his child to private institutions and to taxpayers who foot the bill for public institutions. Education involves not only a campus and some faculty members but a college, even a high school, needs inspiring personalities who will win the respect and sometimes love of the students.

The "educated fool" is a familiar character and he exists on every campus and in every institution. He is a man who knows everything but can apply it to nothing. He is really an evil influence because young people despise him and usually do badly in his courses because they despise him.

These days, it is practically essential for any boy to have a college degree to get a job. This reduces the value of the B. A. or the B. S. because these degrees no longer carry great weight. The number of those seeking M.A.'s and Ph.D.'s will constantly increase as more students realize that higher degrees bring better jobs. How much more an M. A. knows than a B.A. is something that time and experience will show in each individual case.

The essential American problem in education for a constantly increasing number of persons is to distinguish between education, which is access to learning, access to the whole of human knowledge, and training for a job which is the development of technical skills.

Presumably the better colleges are trying to do both with what success it is hard to reach a conclusion. Certainly those condensations of knowledge called "Contemporary Civilization" in fat textbooks is nothing to get very excited about once one leaves the Greeks.

Most of the current stuff is slanted and is often sensational. In fact, some of it reminds me of what the stuffed-shirt pedagogues of another day called "Yellow Journalism."

Now Its Time For Rest, Plans

By Jim Riley

Now that the primary election has passed into history for 1957, we all can return to earth and lead a normal life.

The normal life will probably remain in vogue only until September, when the firing begins for the regular election.

But, right now the winners of the primary are receiving congratulations from all corners, while the losers are searching for one of the same corners in which to lick their wounds.

The winners are planning a Summer rest from political worries and looking to future campaigns early in the Autumn.

It's over for now, but Tuesday's action was only the beginning of firing which will reach its peak in November.

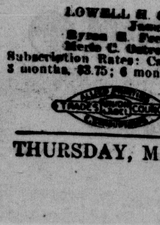
The Once Over

—by H. I. Phillips



Eugene O'Neill, most somber of American dramatists, is getting the musical treatment from Broadway. In a sort of "Long Night's Journey Into Choreography" and "Desire Under the Music Cues," the author, noted for his tragedies, disappears, as it were, into an orchestra pit and comes up in a musical hit. George Abbott is hereby awarded a medal for Courage Beyond the Call of Royalties in performing the miracle of putting Anna Christie among the bassoons, saxophones and violins and he may do more at the box-office with Anna than O'Neill ever did. But this column's dramatic critic, an old O'Neill addict, found it somewhat confusing. In fact he kept talking of Eugene Abbott and George O'Neill as he knocked off the following review:

The Abbottizing of this O'Neill drama is startling and glamorous. I got pretty well mixed up, but, as I see the story now, Anna Christie is a girl who has been abandoned by her father, becomes a fallen woman, but is rescued by a librettist. Chris, her father, is a saloon adict who thinks Anna is out west on a farm. Anna suddenly turns up in a foggy bar and, while she is supposed to be in bad shape, you can see at once that she has not been on any farm, but has come direct from the musical "Damn Yankee."

Chris and his daughter meet in a reunion which has all the pathos the kettledrums can give it. Anna is so despondent she is about to end it all by a double dry martini or other poison, but is saved by a music cue. Then a virile sailor falls or jumps off a boat into the Hudson and comes up with a run-of-the-play contract. It is love at first sight, give or take a few curtain calls.

An old dockside Jezebel, who has been living with Chris, gets jealous and circulates a story that Anna is a lady of the streets and no fit sweetheart for a waterfront Romeo cast for a big part in a hit show. The sailor confronts Anna. This is a dramatic moment. What can they do in such a tragic crisis? Go into a song What else! Nothing comes of it, except audience applause and things look bad until Anna hurls herself into red-light district ballet which makes the hysterical audience think it is in Las Vegas anyhow and proves that the O'Neill theory that waterfront life is dismal, cannot stand up against costly costuming and sensational choreography.

Anna then goes to Staten Island, perhaps fearing the police have seen the dance, but the author brings her back rejuvenated through the long ferry trip. And a tune you can whistle. Her sailor friend is off her but a duet brings a reconciliation. This leads to a grand finale in which the New York waterfront is cleaned up with a cast of 100 and at a cost of half a million, exclusive of revolving scenic effects. Anna is married just as a record demand for seats sets in. The curtain falls with everybody happy, Abbott all set for another fortune, the ticket speculators running a fever and with O'Neill turning over in his grave so rapidly he seems to be on the revolving blades of a helicopter and writing "Strange Interlude" for flutes, bass fiddles and cornets, and batting off a version of "The Hairy Ape" for Ethel Merman.

Gen. Richards Unable To Attend Bypass Committee Meeting

Yetter Posts Letter To A. M. Trogner

CITIZENS BYPASS Committee of Monroe County is going to hold its scheduled public meeting tonight—despite the fact that proponents of the state-recommended Line A will not be present.

Committee chairman Arthur M. Trogner made this clear last night after receiving a telegram from Gen. George J. Richards which disclosed that neither the deputy secretary of highways nor his staff can attend the meeting.

The citizens group called the meeting for 8 p.m. at East Stroudsburg High School in an attempt to air the merits of both the state-proposed alignment and the committee's Plan F.

Route

The state's favored route would carry highway traffic through Stroudsburg and East Stroudsburg on a limited access thruway. The citizens plan would bypass the twin boroughs by carrying traffic through unsettled land to the east and north of the boroughs.

Trogner reported that Gen. Richards informed him by wire that, while he appreciated the citizens committee's invitation to attend tonight's session, it would be impossible for him to attend.

The highway official explained that members of the consulting firm familiar with the bypass have prior commitments "mostly out of state."

"I have an engagement in Philadelphia which I cannot break," Richards' telegram continued. "Those associated with me on the bypass must be at a high level conference in Harrisburg for the evening of May 23rd."

The general's reply made it appear that advocates of Line A were not going to appear at the meeting. Earlier, former Rep. Van D. Yetter, Horace G. Heller, general manager of the Daily Record, and J. L. Kerlin, chairman of the Stroudsburg Businessmen's Assn. traffic and parking committee, all indicated they will not be there.

All three men denied they were "proponents" of Plan A when they turned down the invitation of the citizens group to be present.

Yetter also made public yesterday a letter which he forwarded to the citizens group. The text follows:

"I am at a complete loss to understand what particular advantage would be gained by attending your meeting on Thursday evening and, for that reason, I will not be present.

"I have not at any time advocated the particular location of any bypass or thruway for the Stroudsburgs, believing that the State Highways Department and its engineers would select the route that would best serve the interests of all the people.

Engineers

"I believe that the engineers employed by the department represent the best qualified individuals to decide that question.

"I am satisfied that the engineers considered all feasible routes including the one advocated by your committee and it is my feeling that if you are disgruntled with their conclusions that then you should raise the question with them.

"I am also fearful that if there is a continuation of the biased objections as raised by your committee, that it is quite possible that the entire project might be lost. Could this possibly be your reason for the continuation of your attacks?

Very truly yours,
Van D. Yetter, Jr."

Strike Threatening

TEHRAN, Iran, May 22 (AP) — Taxi drivers in Iran's southern oil center of Abadan are threatening a strike to protest police failure to catch a "killer driver." Sixteen drivers have been slain on lonely roads by a man operating a taxi. Unconfirmed reports say the murderer has vowed to kill 60 drivers to avenge his daughter's kidnapping by a taxi driver.

PTA Group Criticizes Commissioners

KRESGEVILLE — A special County Parent-Teachers Council committee last night criticized Monroe County Commissioners for failure to resume work on the tax equalization program.

In her prepared report for submission to the Council meeting at Polk High School, Mrs. Elmer Veety charged that "the status of the Monroe County Tax Equalization program seems to be the same as it was" in January.

It was in January that Mrs. Veety's committee held its first meeting to discuss the proposed system. Work on the tax equalization or assessment revision program has been stalled since the last month of 1955.

Present Monroe commissioners recently announced that a "study" of work already completed by two previous engineering firms (John Aicher Associates and J. L. Jacobs Co.) would be necessary.

County solicitor L. A. Achterman said that until they knew how much work had been done, commissioners could not advertise for bids for the program's completion.

Mrs. Veety's report, however, said that "two legal suits" (by Aicher and the Jacobs firm) "can no longer be used as an excuse to delay our county tax equalization program."

"Nothing factual can be obtained concerning just how far along the study of prior tax equalization work is, or for that matter if it actually is started," the committee report continued. "As of this week local tax assessors have not received instructions or information pertinent to a countywide 33 and one-third assessment."

The committee made the following recommendations to the PTA Council:

One — That the Council continue to keep the Tax Equalization Committee it had appointed on an active basis.

Two — That all local branches of the PTA ask their members to exercise their right to know "what is delaying the work on the tax equalization program."

Three — That the County PTA Council make its own recommendations to the committee. These requests would then be carried back to local PTA organizations.

Mrs. Veety's report pointed out that, during its January meeting, the committee had called for formation of a county-wide "action" group to demand that the assessment revision program be resumed and finished without delay.

The committee again strongly emphasized the need for such an organization.

It would be made up of other organizations within the county who wished to join with PTAs in the study and discussion of tax equalization. It would have as its primary aim the completion of assessment revision in Monroe.

Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge Commission Reveals Increase Of Traffic On Two Bridges

THE ANNUAL report of the Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge Commission showed yesterday that traffic on bridges controlled by the Commission rose 1.63 percent from 1955 to 1956.

Executive Director George Feaster's report showed the following:

Total traffic over all bridges in 1956 was 42,638,039 vehicles compared to 41,953,495 in 1955.

Comparison

Traffic over toll - collecting bridges was listed as 15,755,288 vehicles last year compared to 15,575,182 in 1955.

Toll bridge traffic accounted for 36.95 percent of the total number of vehicles using Commission-controlled bridges in 1956.

A breakdown of figures shows these totals for the five individual bridges under Commission jurisdiction:

Trenton-Morrisville total traffic was 4,554,290 vehicles in 1956 compared to 4,390,713 the previous year; a decrease of 36,423 vehicles or a decline of .79 of one percent of the total.

Easton-Phillipsburg total traffic was 7,749,663 compared to 7,514,275 in 1955. This was an increase of 235,388 or 3.13 percent for the year.

Portland-Columbia total traffic was 663,746 in 1956 against 707,212 in 1955 or a decrease of 43,466 or 6.15 percent.

Delaware Water Gap bridge traffic showed an increase of 50,663 or 2.4 percent for the year with 2,161,136 listed for 1956 compared to 2,110,473 in 1955.

Milford-Montague total traffic was 626,453 in 1956 compared to 652,509 in 1955; a decrease of 26,056 or 3.99 percent for the year.

Convinced Of Link

SYDNEY, May 22 (AP)—Dr. C. E. Cook, Australia's health officer, is convinced cigaretts contribute to lung cancer. He has recommended that the government campaign to warn nonsmokers against the habit; urge moderation among inveterate smokers, and reduce cigarette consumption by forbidding smoking in government offices, dance halls, dining rooms and cafes.

Outstanding Pupils Honored By Exchange

BANGOR—Annual Bangor Exchange Club dinner honoring outstanding school graduates was held last night in Blue Valley Farm Show auditorium with more than 100 persons atending.

Dr. LeRoy Koehler, president of East Stroudsburg State Teachers College, was the guest speaker.

Honor students who were feted included those from Bangor Area Joint High School, Pius X Catholic High School in Roseto, and the eighth grade honor students from Bangor, Roseto, Lower and Upper Mount Bethel townships, East Bangor, Lower Mount Bethel Independent District, Portland, Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Parochial School and Washington Township.

Certificates of merit were presented to the students by Wilson Jackson

Mervine Rolls Up 1,968 Edge Over Judge Davis On Ticket

STROUDSBURG attorney Russell L. Mervine strengthened his hold on the Democratic nomination for 43rd Judicial District judge yesterday as complete unofficial returns from Pike county were announced.

Mervine had a total of 4,181 votes to 2,213 for incumbent President Judge Fred W. Davis who cross-filed seeking the nomination of both parties.

The 43rd district includes both Monroe and Pike. Returns from the latter county showed that Mervine had 664 and Davis 253 on the Democratic ticket. Davis collected 1,451 Republican votes without opposition.

In Monroe County the Democratic race showed up this way: Mervine — 3,517 votes to Davis — 1,960.

The outcome of Tuesday's election set the stage for what will probably be the most interest-evoking race in November's general election.

Judge Davis had concentrated the major portion of his "campaign" prior to the primary on the principle that "sitting judges" should be given bi-partisan support in an effort to take judicial races out of "politics."

Sands Reported Radioactive

NEW DELHI, May 22 (AP)—Two U. S. scientists reported the Monazite sands of Kerala in far south India are radioactive and said the people there should be suffering ill effects from long exposure.

Prime Minister Nehru, disagreeing, told Parliament: "The Kerala people and Monazite sands have been associated with each other for a few thousands years without any apparent deterioration.

Ministerium Approves 15 For Ordination

By Paul Carlson

THE LUTHERAN Ministerium of Pennsylvania today approved for ordination 15 young men, all of whom were assigned parishes.

The action highlighted today's session of the 210th annual convention during which clergymen and laymen were elected to a number of boards.

Those approved to be ministers and their assignments:

Martin A. Acker, Schuylkill Haven, called by the Board of Missions of the United Lutheran Church in America for assignment to King of Prussia parish.

Rudolph H. Bischoff, Philadelphia, assistant pastor at the Advent Lutheran Church, Philadelphia.

Sherwood L. Dieter, Palmerton, pastor of St. Luke's Church, Obelisk.

Peter P. Grimes, Womelsdorf, pastor of Centerport parish.

Walter H. Hitchcock Jr., Philadelphia, assistant pastor at St. Luke's Church, Lansdowne.

William Jensen, Bristol, pastor of Christ Church, Easton.

Donald B. Landis, Telford, assistant pastor of St. Paul's Church, Glenside.

Charles E. Mertz, Lehighton, pastor of Zion Church, East Pikeland.

Louis V. Rogers, Wilmington, Del., pastor of Noxen parish.

Durrell J. Seip, Northampton, pastor of Quakake parish.

George F. Spieker, Emmaus, pastor of St. Paul's, Gordon.

Earl D. Strauwn, Reading, associate pastor of Holy Trinity, Erie.

Harry P. Unks, Easton, associate pastor, Trinity, Perkasie.

Ernest M. Waxbom Jr., West Chester, pastor of Nuremberg parish.

George I. Ziengenfus, Palmerton, pastor of New Tripoli parish.

Boards

Elected to various boards were:

Executive—The Rev. Maynard C. Hallock, Pottsville; C. Allen Thomas, Norristown; W. Gordon Williams, Forty Fort. One clergyman is still to be chosen.

Home Missions—The Rev. George W. Fritch, Scranton; the Rev. William H. Marburger, Orwigsburg; Edwin R. Klein Jr., Allentown; John Rutherford, Flourtown.

Inner Missions—The Rev. Frank E. Radcliffe, Reading; John W. Schmitthener, Tamaqua; William F. Sutter, Nescopek; Mrs. H. Scott Ashton, Bethlehem; Mrs. George Ryon, Jr., Potsville. One clergyman is still to be chosen.

Christian Education—The Rev. Francis R. Edwards, Wilkes-Barre; the Rev. William C. Roegel, Chalfont; Harold Bernhardt, Yeadon; Harold O. Speidel, Pine Grove.

Trustees for Topton Home near Kutztown—Rev. Clarence A. Steigerwalt, Schuylkill Haven; Maurice D. Walborn, Pottsville.

Lutheran Welfare Service of Northeastern Pennsylvania — Mrs. Henry Green, Hazleton; Mrs. Carrie Gassner, Lehighton.

The ministerium also formally received into the synod 18 pastors who have transferred into the area and already have been assigned churches.

A report by the Rev. Luther F. Schlenker of Perkasie, director of the appeal for Muhlenberg College, said $1,415,000 of a $1,500,000 goal already had been pledged. The drive, ending at the end of the year, already has 77 percent of the goal in cash.

In an address, William L. Katz of Hatfield, assistant director of the Muhlenberg Appeal, asserted that it costs the synod $5,200 to educate a man for the ministry, through college and seminary—and that each minister serves on an average of 30 years. Therefore, Katz concluded, the average congregation of 300 members should contribute this amount toward education every 30 years.

The ministerum today formally inducted the Rev. Dr. Francis A. Shearer of Philadelphia as executive secretary of the Board of Inner Missions of the synod. He previously had served in a similar post with the Board of Social Missions. The Board of Inner Missions concerns itself with child welfare, institutional chaplains, and homes for orphans and the aged.

Commission Approves Boost

HARRISBURG, May 22 (AP)—The Public Utility Commission today authorized the South Canaan Telephone Co. of Lake Ariel to raise its public pay telephone charges from 5 to 10 cents beginning June 1.

The company serves the Lackawanna-Wayne County area. It estimated the boost would produce $135 a year.

Mountainhome To Increase Rates

THE PUBLIC Utility Commission today approved a $4,500 annual rate increase proposed by the Mountainhome Water Co., Cresco.

The utility will raise rates to 277 flat rate consumers June 1.

Baccalaureate Services Among Missing In Many Graduation Programs Through Nation

By HERMAN R. ALLEN

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP)—In a month or so the schools of the nation will be closing out another year, sending new thousands of high school graduates out into the world.

Time was when high school commencement was accompanied almost as a matter of course, by a religious observance called the baccalaureate service.

Today, under their own strict interpretation of a Supreme Court ruling against school-sponsored religious instructions, many communities have abandoned this tradition.

To a leather-cheeked Texas high school principal, recently elected president of the National Assn. of Secondary-School Principals, this is just one more indication of a trend which he deplores.

R. B. Norman of Amarillo, in an interview at the NASSP convention here, called for more religion in the public schools.

"I think it's a moral tragedy, and a sin against youth, that we can't use the Bible itself as a springboard for instruction in moral precepts and examples," he said.

History

"We do teach Bible history and the principles of religion as elective courses," he said. "The Ministerial Alliance furnishes the instructors and the money. We've never had a word of protest despite the Supreme Court."

The Court has made two major rulings in recent years bearing on religious instruction and the public schools.

In a 1948 decision arising from a Champaign, Ill., case, it declared unconstitutional a program of religious instruction in school buildings, approved and supervised by school officials. In 1952 it ruled in a New York case that children might be released from school for religious instruction elsewhere. Between two and three million children in various states now receive such "released-time-instruction."

What are the views of major religious and educational organizations on the question?

A conference on religion and public education sponsored in 1955 by two committees of the National Council of Churches, reported "1. The American way requires public schools as institutions to be kept separate from the churches as institutions. However, the churches and the schools should cooperate in serving the total educational needs of children and youth.

"2. The public schools have a responsibility to make the largest possible provision in the schools for non-sectarian religious teaching and influence. . .

Schools

"The schools may teach about religion or its values as a fundamental factor in our national life. They may not teach in such a way as to serve the sectarian needs of any ecclesiastical institution individually or collectively."

The NCC represents 25 Protestant and five Eastern Orthodox bodies.

The Educational Policies Commission, a joint agency of the National Education Assn. and one of its departments, the American Assn. of School Administrators, issued a report on "moral and spiritual values in the public schools" in 1951.

It said these values could be promoted in schools by "defining as goals the accepted moral and spiritual values in our society . . . promoting religious tolerance . . . teaching about religion as an important fact in our culture."

And the Committee on Religion and Education of the American Council on Education, again emphasizing the "about," said in 1953:

"We believe we have found the most promising approach to the further study of this problem, namely, factual study of religion when and where intrinsic to general education."

Macmillan Agrees Nasser Suez Boss

LONDON, May 22 (AP) — Prime Minister Macmillan today grudgingly acknowledged Egyptian President Nasser as boss for the moment of the Suez Canal. He told British ships to resume sailing through it on Egypt's terms.

Eight Conservative members of Parliament immediately quit the government party as a protest against what they regarded as a surrender to Nasser. They said appeasement of any kind "leads only to disaster."

Macmillan announced his revised position on Suez in the House of Commons, which was crowded but quiet.

"This is by no means the end of the story," he said. "It is not a settlement, not an agreement. That is why it is unsatisfactory. What we have to face . . . is the actual situation."

Same Time

At the same time Macmillan set out to put British relations with Egypt back on a businesslike basis. He announced slight easements of Britain's financial squeeze on Egypt and disclosed the two countries soon will begin discussing a dollars-and-cents accounting.

Macmillan's statement began the long process of unwinding the diplomatic and financial tangle brought about by Egypt's nationalization of the Suez Canal last July, which culminated in the British-French invasion of the Suez area last fall.

The British-Egyptian talks will open in Rome May 23. Macmillan did not define their scope. Other British officials, however, said crisis

No Speaking Program Slated For Banquet

THERE WILL be no speaking program tonight at the 10th anniversary banquet of the Eastern Poconos Resort Assn., President William J. Altier reported yesterday.

The banquet will be held at Sunnybrook, Echo Lake, beginning with a cocktail hour at 6 p.m. and the dinner at 7. Dancing will follow the dinner.

Harold A. Swenson, director, state Vacation and Travel Development Bureau, will be one of the honored guests. He is a former executive secretary of the Pocono Mountains Chamber of Commerce and the Vacation Bureau.

County Club Federation Plans Year

The scholarship to be awarded a Monroe County student wishing to attend East Stroudsburg State Teachers College to be awarded this year for the first time by the Monroe County Federation of Women's Clubs was discussed at the executive board meeting held Tuesday night at the home of the county president, Mrs. Claude Leister, at the Wild Animal Farm.

Scholarship

Mrs. John Sibley, East Stroudsburg, who is state Scholarship Chairman of the Pennsylvania Federation of Women's Clubs, with Mrs. Leon Meyung, Barrett, county chairman of education, have conferred with County Superintendent of Schools John S. Litts and Dr. Francis McGarry of the College to set up the scholarship plan. The scholarship will be awarded at graduation time.

Mental Health Programs

A detailed report was given on the steering committee meeting of the new Mental Health Assn., inaugurated at the Spring meeting of the County Federation with Mrs. Arthur Henning as president. Representatives of all the organizations in the county had sent representatives to the steering commitee meeting. Each organization was asked to reserve one program this year for mental health.

The meeting followed a covered dish supper at the Leister home. Informal reports were given of the convention of the Pennsylvania Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. John Sibley was the county delegate. Others who attended the convention and gave reports included Mrs. William Hannas, Mrs. Samuel O. Wells, Mrs. William Howard, Mrs. Robert Bixler and Mrs. William Morgan.

Int. Affairs Projects

Mrs. William Pipher, county finance chairman, requested each club to send her copies of their budgets for the coming year as soon as they had been completed. Mrs. Leister asked for a complete list of the officers and chairmen of each club with their addresses and telephone numbers.

Mrs. Frank Grimm, county chairman of International Affairs, suggested a number of projects in the field. The board voted to postpone a definite decision until Fall.

Mrs. Leister announced that the Northeast District Conference, held last year in Stroudsburg, would be held at the County Club in Dallas on Sept. 20.

Clearview, Arlington Heights PTAs Install New Officers

President, Mrs. Elwood German; vice president, Thomas Manley; secretary, Mrs. Norman Dennis, and treasurer, Mrs. Walter Weber.

Also installed from Arlington Heights PTA were: President, Edwin Buck; vice president, John Pyle; secretary, Mrs. George Keenhold, and treasurer, Walter McClelland.

Mrs. J. W. Regan, school librarian, presented a review of the children's books in the library, following a film on "Reading Problems." Mrs. Regan emphasized the necessity of parents providing reading stimuli over the summer months.

A report encouraging the writing to congressman concerning new school construction was received by Herbert Ayres. He further reported that the House has recently passed a bill providing for imprisonment in lieu of non-payment of fines for passing stopped school buses.

Junior Colleges

Mrs. Lester Katz reported on the last school board meeting and northeast District PTA Conference. She also reported on an educational luncheon which she had with Governor Leader at the Governor's Mansion in Harrisburg. At this meeting discussion was held concerning the establishing of Junior Colleges throughout Pennsylvania. At the present time only one out of three students applying for college entrances are accepted due to the over-crowded conditions.

Neighborhood Teams

Mrs. Robert Baird expressed the need for children's baseball teams. She stated that only a limited number are accepted for the Little League, and that neighborhood teams might be the answer to these additional children who desire to play baseball. Anyone interested in placing their children on a neighborhood team are urged to call 2842.

For the outstanding work done by Russell Pritchard while acting as Clearview PTA President for the past two years, the members praised his accomplishments and presented him with a Past President's pin.

Refreshments were served by the faculty during a social period.

Honors Sister

Mrs. Allen Heimbach served a turkey dinner on Sunday in honor of the birthday of her sister, Mrs. Art Bond. Present were William Veranka, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dyson and children, Jan and Robert, of Wind Gap, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bond and children, Shirley and Kenny, Mrs. Ella Dyson, and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Heimbach.

June Memorial Service

Newfoundland—Memorial services for departed members of the Ladies of Paupack Rebekah Lodge will be held on June 6, according to Agnes Waltz, noble grand, who presided this week at the semi-monthly business meeting of the active unit held in the lodge hall.

Rebekah flags will be placed on graves before Memorial Day, it was noted.

Bible School Has Banquet In Shawnee

Shawnee On Delaware — The Berean Bible School of Allentown opened the first season of the Mountain Meadow Retreat Center above Shawnee by holding their Annual Middle Senior Farewell at the newly finished Berean Log Lodge.

The faculty present were the Bible School President Rev. Jansen E. Hartman, Mrs. Ruth A. Hartman, Rev. Norman B. Jerome, and Doris C. Schaeffer. The seniors present were Leon K. Overpeck, class president, Lonny L. Thomas, vice president, Vernon J. Howerter, sec.-treas., Leonard E. Buck, Donna I. Daugherty, Richard J. Gehman. 'Louise V. Miller, Harry T. Mills Jr., Donald E. Nilsson, and Richard R. Ruth.

The Middlers present were Ellen Pitchford, president, LeRoy Wilcox, vice pres., Lilas Butler, sec., Naida Sue Copenhaver, treas., Martha Heliger, Shirley Kline, Janet Lohman and Richard Whitner.

The table decorations were miniature graduation caps and diplomas rolled and tied with ribbon. The dinner and program was sponsored for the seniors by the Middler class of 1958. An evening of fellowship was enjoyed by all and the program theme "Memories" with various skits was presented to the Seniors by members of the Middler class. The pine-paneled log lodge with its big stone fireplace was the perfect atmosphere for the event. As the evening drew to a close the most precious memories of all were the unspoken ones deep in the minds of all present, of the times spent together in the study of the Word of God in preparation of life service to Him.

Anniversary Supper For D of A June 7

Just Between Us

—By Bobby Westbrook

Let's face it. Some of us are just not geared for gracious living. Oh, we try—but somehow it doesn't quite come off. The molded salad that was to be the piece de resistance comes out lopsided and soft around the edges; the candles burn unevenly and drip wax like mad.

That's when we try to be gracious for the sake of other people. But when we can't even live graciously for our own benefit, we might as well admit defeat. For instance: last Saturday, for once, there were no parties, no weddings, no company, no nothing on my schedule, except, of course, housework.

Seeking to postpone that inevitable chore, I started leafing through accumulated magazines. "Women living alone become careless in their house-keeping and in their appearance, and tend to become as dreary as their surroundings", said one article.

Very true, I agreed, looking around at the snips of sewing and the swirls of dust in the room and my faded dungarees and run-over shoes.

"Treat yourself like company," the advice continued, "Live graciously".

"All right," I agreed, meekly. So I put aside my plans for grubbing around in the attic, and instead picked lilacs for every available vase. I spent a whole half hour putting on unaccustomed nail polish, somewhat sloppily but glamorous enough by the dim light in which I drank my tea—from the best china, of course, and with a linen napkin, if you please.

Well, maybe there is something to the advice. At least, I didn't feel any drearier—not right then, anyway. But I didn't feel very gravious, either—just sort of lonely in lilac-scented way.

When I felt dreary was yesterday when in the first pause in the hectic days which followed that "gracious-living" Saturday, I had time to look around: dead lilacs everywhere, scattering shriveled petals and brown leaves over everything; a crumpled tea napkin right next to the unopened Sunday papers; and my hands looking leprous with the chipped, and peeling nail polish I hadn't had time to remove or repair.

Living graciously, indeed! I guess maybe from here on I'd better concentrate on living, period.

L. C. Nauman Married In Hope Church

Mrs. Abbie Lou Raine Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Kitchen of Columbia, N.J., was married on Friday, May 17, to Lamont Clair Nauman, son of Mrs. Lorretta Nauman and the late Clair Nauman of Swiftwater, Pa.

THE Wyckoff SHOPPER

Word around the store has it that Gracie and Stanley Grace are naming their new little daughter Michele. Gracie, you doubtless remember, is the former secretary to our general manager, J. L. Kerlin. When she left us some weeks ago, she was succeeded by Edna Bloch who, right this minute, is stenciling my words to a song about Playtex girdles which we will sing this morning when our Playtex promotion begins. Oh, we always have plenty to sing about at Wyckoff's! Every promotion has its own special song.

When Betty Colvin first approached me about a Playtex song, I had a wonderful time experimenting with lyrics, most of which, I'm afraid, were not exactly what our corsetiere had in mind. One phrase in particular appealed to me, and I sang it over and over to Betty's dismay: "her figure was lithe, and she always looked nithe, with her Playtex on."

"That's terrible," Betty mourned. "Just awful! You'll have to do better than that. So, I wrote another song . . . but I still think the first lyrics were better. The trouble is, Betty's too fussy. After all, she can't expect any song to tell the entire PLAYTEX story . . . Playtex works its own magic in its own way, and every woman who wears one writes her own lyrics to the inspiring music of appreciative whistles!

∴ ∴ ∴

AROUND AND ABOUT WYCKOFF'S: Learned a new word today from our manager—"serendipity." It means "an apparent aptitude for making fortunate discoveries accidentally." If you have that aptitude, by all means make use of it at Wyckoff's. There's so much here to discover, both accidentally and with premeditation—and all of it so unusual . . . Our domestics department is a regular Hope Chest filled with surprises these days, so I had a wonderful time treasure hunting the other morning. Particularly attractive are the many accessories for outdoor cooking and serving. There are Bar-B-Q aprons for the host, asking the plaintive question "Must I Be Well Done Too?"—there are barbecue mitts, heavily insulated and quilted, with a palm of asbestos, there are 5 pc magnetized sets for use in or out of doors, composed of two oven mitts, two pot holders, and a pot or pan handle. And then, for food protection from ants, flies, and the like, there are net umbrellas that set squarely over a dish of salad, spaghetti, or such. These are decorated with plump velvet bees, or bright butterflies, and add a certain note of festivity to your patio dining and picnics. Umbrella, apron, and asbestos-palmed mitt are priced at 1.49 each; the 5-pc set is 1.98; individual mitts are 49c, and pot holders, 29c . . . If that word "magnetized" baffled you, we simply mean there are tiny magnets in the handles of these accessories, and you can hang them at a moment's notice from grill, refrigerator, stove or any other metal surface. They're magnetically eye-catching too, in yellow, pink, blue, black or red print . . . Also in our domestics department are some most attractive place mats, among the most unusual being those of white cloth strips, woven in braided effect, with gayly colored Pennsylvania Dutch designs. These are only 1.00, and would be perfect in my little dining room and probably in yours . . . If you plan long, lazy afternoons on the beach, you'll want to know about some of the biggest, thirstiest, prettiest beach towels we've ever stocked. Absolutely the towel to end all towels glamour wise is a white terry, edged in natural color string fringe, that glows with lobsters in their ruddy broiled state. It's 3.98, and as bright as tomorrow's sunshine. Cannon has a 2.98 towel which is awfully cute too, but not nearly so glamorous. It has an over-all pattern of trained seals balancing balls on their heads. The seal has my seal of approval, naturally—but that lobster has its claws on my budget, and I'd better watch out! . . . Nylon "Bean Bag Boxers" are the big swim suits news from Doug Gordon's department. As a matter of fact, Doug had a wonderful—and perplexing—time the other afternoon showing us how the suit slides into its own pocket, and buttons, so that it actually forms its own carrying case. We all had a try at it—and it works, but it does take a bit of practice. The suits come in red or black, are nylon mesh lined, and, in sizes 8 to 12, are priced at 3.50. Sizes 14 to 20 are 3.98. If you've time on your hands, come in and see how the Bean Bag suit works!

STC Coed Married In Pen Argyl

Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Williams Sr., of 118 N. Robinson Ave., Pen Argyl, announce the marriage of their daughter, Gayle Nadine to Richard H. Mutton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Mutton, 118 Laurel Ave., Pen Argyl.

The ceremony was performed on May 11 at a candlelight ceremony at the Zion Methodist Church Pen Argyl by Rev. Robert E. Sheesler. Mrs. Anna Kress was organist and George Parsons soloist.

The bride was attended by Miss Kay Branch. She wore a white ballerina gown of lace over taffeta and carried a white Bible with an orchid, lilies of the valley and ivy. Her short veil was held by a crown of pearls. She was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Branch wore a yellow ballerina length gown, and a band of yellow flowers to hold her veil. She carried a white lace fan with yellow daisies and ivy.

After a reception in the church social rooms, Mr. and Mrs. Mutton left for a trip to Atlantic City. They will reside at the home of the bride's parents.

Mrs. Mutton was graduated from Pen Argyl High School and is now attending East Stroudsburg State Teachers College. Mr. Mutton attended Pen Argyl High School and is employed by Sawyer and Johnson, Florists, in Bethlehem.

Stroudsburg Scores Five Runs In Sixth To Top Pocono

Mountaineers Blast Deficit Of Four Runs

STROUDSBURG High School came from behind a 4-0 deficit to score five times in the bottom of the sixth inning to edge Pocono High 5-4. The game was played last night at Gordon Giffels field.

Pocono, champions of the Monroe County High School League, jumped off to a four-run lead in the top of the fourth inning after three frames of scoreless ball. Taking advantage of two walks and a pair of errors — coupled with erratic infield play on two bunt singles — the Blue and White made only one solid single stand up for the quartet.

Paul Frailey, the Pocono squads' top pitcher, almost made the lead stand up. Frailey, who had pitched his team to the league title only Tuesday, was called in when the Stroudsburg nine had two men on base with walks and none out in the third. He retired the next three men via strikeout route, and settled down to dazzle the Mountaineer hitters with his soft-curve for the next two innings, fanning a total of eight men in four innings.

However, he walked the first man to face him in the fatal sixth. Barry Tretheway. A passed ball advanced him to second, whence he scored as shortstop Burdette Peechatka overthrew first on a routine grounder by Ronnie Stopp. Charley Cramsey singled up the middle, and a momentary bobble by the centerfielder allowed Ronnie Stopp to count for the second run. A walk to Ronnie "Super" Phillips set the stage for Bob Pugh's solid double into left-center field, which knotted the score at 4-apiece. John Mirenda, pinchhitting, untied it quickly with another single.

Stroudsburg suffered a sharp fielding lapse in the fourth inning. A walk, an error and a bunt which went for a single when second-sacker Johnny Schoonover was late in covering first-base loaded the bags. The squeeze scored one, and an error by Charley Cramsey allowed the second to tally. Marty Zeek laced a sharp single through short for another; the second bunt single and a walk accounted for the fourth and final run which Pocono was destined to score.

Frank "Buddy" Radler started the game for the Mountaineers, and pitched well for six innings until he was lifted for a pinch-hitter. Jim Snyder pitched the final inning, walking the first but atoning for it with a sparking catch of a bunt attempt, throwing to first to double the runner and end the game.

Three Records Fall In Annual Field Day Events

THE ANNUAL Monroe County Field Day, in which 196 youths of high school age competed, was held at East Stroudsburg State Teachers College yesterday.

The track-and-field meet saw representatives of four high schools — Pocono, Tobyhanna, Polk, and Chestnuthill — compete in a variety of events. The contestants were divided into three groups — Junior, Intermediate, and Senior — on the basis of age, weight, and height.

One of the major purposes of this event was to indoctrinate both the contestants and the student-teachers who ran the meet with the importance and value of physical education and fitness.

No Team Scores

It was an individual tournament, and no team scores were kept.

Three records fell and another was equalled in the Junior Division. There were no new marks in either the Intermediate or Senior categories.

Charles Bruch of Polk High shattered the old shot-put mark by close to three feet, tossing the lead ball 29 feet, two inches. The old record was 26-6. James Franks, Tobyhanna, threw a baseball 233 feet, eclipsing the former mark by six feet. The Pocono oval-relay team trotted the 240-yard distance in 0:36.1, clipping a second off of the previous low. Sam Tucker, a Pocono High youth, equalled the 60-yard dash time of 8.2.

Summary follows:

Summary of Senior Events

100 yard dash — Vishnesky, Pocono, 1st; Serfass, Chestnuthill, 2nd; Nijuland, Pocono, 3rd. Time, 11.2 seconds.

Besecker's Club Trips Twin City

THE TWIN CITY TV nine scored once in the top of the first inning, but the lead held up only through the first four hitters on the Besecker Diner squad when Bob Schick drove in two runs.

The Besecker squad went on to post a 6-1 win in the Monroe County Softball League, held last night at Stroudsburg Playground.

Five of the six tallies came in the bottom of the first. Evans followed Schick with a base hit, then Russ Bergman knocked them in. Bergman came around to score the fifth run.

Schick's fine fielding, in addition to his key hitting, coupled with sterling four-hit pitching by Chet Lucki to keep the TVers in check for the remaining six innings.

Tonight's schedule sees the Besecker's club again in action, facing the 579th Signal Corps nine, also at the Stroudsburg Playground.

Two Sites For Stadium

NEW YORK, May 22 (AP)—A special committee appointed by Mayor Wagner to work with the Brooklyn Sports Center Authority announced today that only two sites for a possible stadium for the Brooklyn Dodgers are under consideration.

Five sites have been suggested by various city officials. But the committee said only a site immediately north of the intersection of Atlantic and Flatbush avenues in Brooklyn and another almost directly opposite it on Atlantic avenue are being considered.

Announcement

The committee announcement stated that both the committee and the sports authority have been given to understand either would be acceptable to the Dodgers.

Arthur E. "Red" Patterson, assistant to the general manager of the Dodgers, said, "O'Malley (president Walter O'Malley recently discussed this development with Mayor Wagner and Sports Center Authority Chairman Charles Mylord and that further meetings are planned."

The next step will be a specific plan by the Sports Center Authority for transmission to the Board of Estimate for submission to the Dodgers.

Two Tilts For Little League

POCONO LITTLE League swings into full-scale action tonight when Barrett Lions meet Tannersville nine and Barrett Rotary tangles with Pocono Lake.

The Lions play at home in Barrett, while the Rotarians travel to Pocono Lake.

Bushkill To Drill

THE BUSHKILL baseball team will practice this afternoon at 5:30 p.m. on their home field.

Line Material Wins Over Ronson, 12-11

LINE MATERIAL scored 10 runs in the bottom of the first and added two more in the fourth to outlast Ronson's scattered 11-run total in an Industrial Softball League Encounter last night.

The L. M. nine finished on the long end of a 12-11 count.

Going into the top of the fifth, L. M. lead 12-4, but Ronson tallied six in the fifth and one more in the sixth to bring the score up to its 12-11 finale.

Ronson, however, was able to get nothing rolling against Bud Williams in the seventh and last inning. "Lakey" Heller suffered the loss for Ronson.

Furgol Leads Over Palmer

KANSAS CITY, May 22 (AP)—Former U. S. Open champion Ed Furgol today backed up his claim that he's playing the best golf of his long career by clipping six strokes off par in a practice round for the Kansas City Open.

Furgol, tanned and trim after a short vacation at his Florida home, played the Hillcrest Country Club's rain-softened, 6668-yard course in 32-34-66. Par is 36-36-72.

Four Days

The $22,000 Kansas City Open begins a four-day run at Hillcrest tomorrow, and Furgol's brilliant round today placed him among the favorites.

Two other contenders, defending champion Bo Wininger and Arnold Palmer, posted sub-par rounds for the front nine at Hillcrest today. Wininger had a 2-under-par 34 and Palmer shot a 33.

Tanner Turns Tide

MILWAUKEE, May 22 (AP)—Chuck Tanner drilled his first home run of the season, a long drive over the right-field fence in the 13th inning tonight to give the Milwaukee Braves a 4-3 victory over Philadelphia Phillies and Robin Roberts who had gone all the way.

Orioles Down Tigers

BALTIMORE, May 22 (AP) — Al Pilarcik's one-out single through first baseman Ray Boone's legs gave the Baltimore Orioles a 4-3 10th inning victory over the Detroit Tigers here tonight.

Number Of Top Keglers To Display Ability In Tourney

THIS weekend brings another crew of first-rate bowlers up to the Poconos in an attempt to slice themselves a big hunk of the $48,000 which has been offered by the Pocono Slate Belt Bowling Tournament Assn.

Last weekend saw the Budweiser crew sweep through, leaving much of the scratch tournament in shambles. Another crew of brewer representatives roll in, the Pfeiffer Brewery squad out of Detroit and the Meister Brau rollers from Chicago. Both outfits will bowl this Saturday.

Easton Fleas

Tomorrow night witnesses the Easton Flea's attempt at the ten-pins. On Saturday, several high competent bowlers, such as Joe Ritchie of Rochester and Tom Sangan, assault the Budweiser tallies.

Sunday's action includes Veto Calolo and his entourage from Syracuse, and Patsy Comandy, Toffy Zabady, and John Dreibe, of Scranton.

Pirates Sign Young Hurler

PITTSBURGH, May 22 (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates today announced the signing of an 18-year-old righthanded pitcher from the Bahamas to a contract with the Clinton club in the Class D Midwest League.

He is Godfrey E. Johnson of Nassau. Johnson is 6-2 and weighs 160 pounds.

Lane Stops Brown In Sixth Round Of Lightweight Bout

DETROIT, May 22 (AP) — Kenny Lane of Muskegon, Mich., tonight knocked out Philadelphia's Henry "Toothpick" Brown in the sixth round of their scheduled 10-round lightweight bout. Lane, the No. 1 contender, held the upper hand all the way and finished the job with a long right hand to Brown's jaw.

Lane weighed 139½, Brown 137.

The stubby Lane staggered Brown in mid-ring early in the round and never let up. Brown, who had been idle since breaking his right hand last November, first tried to fight back and then held on as Lane continued the bombardment with both hands.

End

The end came at 1:14 of the sixth.

It was the 46th victory in 51 starts for Lane and strengthened his bid for a crack at the winner of the title bout next month between champion Joe Brown and Orlando Zulueta.

Brown, going down to his fifth defeat in 31 bouts, never was able to solve Lane's southpaw style in the nationally televised and broadcast bout.

For the 25-year-old Lane, it was only the eighth time he has stopped an opponent and tonight's explosive victory was his 13th in succession.

Lane, scoring his third straight kayo, concentrated on Brown's body in the early going. Only in the second round was the Philadelphia boxer able to land any telling blows.

Tighe Echoes Lopez Confidence

BALTIMORE, May 22 (AP)—Jack Tighe, rookie manager of the Detroit Tigers, echoed the confident feeling today of Chicago's Al Lopez that the New York Yankees "can be taken" this season.

"They have some fellows who are getting a little old, and Casey Stengel tells me a couple are getting too content," Tighe said today. "That's something new on the Yankees—contentment."

Eagles Sign New Fullback

PHILADELPHIA, May 22 (AP)—The Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League today announced the signing of Ohio State fullback Hubert Bobo for the 1957 season. Bobo, a 6-1 205-pounder, played only one season for Ohio State, in 1954. He was out of school in 1955, and missed last season due to a training injury. He is 22 and a resident of Chauncey, Ohio.

Chisox Slam Yankees For Ninth Straight

NEW YORK, May 22 (AP)—The league-leading Chicago White Sox sped to their ninth straight victory today, 8-4, with the help of three New York Yankee errors, including a dropped fly by Mickey Mantle.

Chicago ripped into Yankee pitching for 11 hits, including Nellie Fox's second homer of the season.

Billy Martin, restored to the line-up after a period on the injured list, misplayed two ground balls at second and Mantle failed to catch a fly and ran into Elston Howard on another fly that fell for a double.

A tight battle between 35-year-old Jim Wilson and young Johnny Kucks was broken wide open in the sixth when Chicago scored five runs on four hits and two errors. All five runs were unearned.

Streaks Broken

Two scoreless streaks were broken early in the game. Kucks, who had pitched 18 consecutive scoreless innings against Chicago over a two-year span, yielded a run in the third. Luis Aparicio singled, stole second and scored on Fox's single off Joe Collins glove.

The Yanks broke through Wilson's string of 21 1-3 shutout innings with three in the fourth. Successive singles by Billy Martin, Collins and Mickey Mantle accounted for the first run. Yogi Berra's sacrifice fly drove in Collins and Mantle came home on Howard's single after Gil McDougald was walked intentionally.

Chicago got back one run in the fifth when Mantle collided with Howard and Minnie Minoso's fly fell for a double. Aparicio, who had only one hit in his last 29 at bats before today, had opened the inning with a single and taken second on an infield out.

The Yankee defense collapsed in the sixth when Mantle dropped Fox's long fly as he ran back toward deep center, letting two runs score. Martin's fumble of Aparicio's roller already had given the Sox one run. Nine men went to bat in the inning as Chicago touched up Kucks, Art Ditmar and Tommy Byrne.

Red Sox Equal Record For Circuit Blows In One Inning While Rolling Over Indians, 11-0

BOSTON, May 22 (AP)—Boston cracked out a record-tying four home runs in an inning including Ted Williams' 10th today as the revived Red Sox battered Cleveland 11-0. Right hander Tom Brewer checked the Indians on four hits for his sixth triumph.

Gene Mauch, Williams, Dick Gernert and Frank Malzone connected for the homers in the sixth inning off Cal McLish to equal an American League mark the Sox set in 1940.

Share

Williams was a party to that barrage in Philadelphia, too, on Sept. 24. He was followed by Jimmy Foxx, Joe Cronin and Jim Tabor.

Detroit's Dizzy Trout, Gerry Priddy, Vic Wertz and Hobt Evers duplicated the feat in 1950. Wertz currently is with Cleveland.

The major league standard for an inning is five held jointly by the New York Giants (1939) and Philadelphia Phillies (1949).

Giants Score In Ninth To Decision Cubs

CHICAGO, May 22 (AP)—The New York Giants rewarded Alan Worthington's stout relief pitching today with a ninth-inning run that beat the Chicago Cubs, 4-3, and gained a split of their two game series.

The Giants' winning run came after Daryl Spencer led off the ninth inning with a double off Bob Rush.

Early Runs

The Cubs scored twice in the first on sacrifice flies by Dale Long and Jim Bolger. The Giants scored an unearned run in the second, and went ahead with two runs in the third when Willie Mays opened with a triple to run his hitting streak to 11 straight games and a .408 average during the span.

Before Rush was able to pitch out of this jam Gail Harris' infield out got Mays across and Don Mueller doubled and scored the lead run on Ray Jablonski's single.

Long's fifth homer reached the vacant center field seats, sailing over the 400-foot sign, for the tying run to open the Cubs' sixth.

Kansas City Wins Battle Of Home Runs

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP)—Gus Zernial crashed two homers to provide most of the power as Kansas City belted Washington, 8-6, in a batting jamboree today in topcoat weather at Griffith Stadium.

Zernial drove in three runs with his blasts, two in the opening inning, to send the A's winging to their first triumph in four games.

Vic Power of the A's, Jim Lemon and Roy Sievers of the Senators also hit home runs.

Keenan Retains Crowns

GLASGOW, Scotland, May 22 (AP)—Peter Keenan of Scotland retained his British and Empire and bantamweight crowns tonight when he stopped 23-year-old John Smillie, also of Scotland, in the sixth round. Each weighed 115 pounds.

Redbirds Alston Is Hospitalized

ST. LOUIS, May 22 (AP)—Tom Alston, reserve first baseman and first Negro ever to wear a St. Louis Cardinal uniform, was in Jewish Hospital today for tests to determine why he has lost 15 pounds since spring training.

The club moved immediately to put him on the disabled list, which would permit them to bring up another player, but Commissioner Ford Frick awaited a physician's report before acting on the request.

Sees Farm System Hurting Baseball

NEW ORLEANS, May 22 (AP)—Vince Rizzo, general manager of the New Orleans Pelicans, said today the farm system eventually would kill baseball and at the same time predicted his Southern Assn. team would be out of business by June 1 unless a miracle occurs.

Rizzo said in an interview he realizes now that the New Orleans team cannot continue.

THE PENN - STROUD Little League baseball team will hold a full-scale practice today at 6 p.m. It will take place at the home Little League park.

Helfand Fears Death Blow For Boxing

NEW YORK, May 22 (AP)—The chairman of the New York State Athletic Commission said today he felt boxing would be killed if the government forced Madison Square Garden to end its Friday night televised bouts.

Julius Helfand made his statement while testifying before Sylvester J. Ryan in the government's monopoly suit against the International Boxing Club and its subsidiaries.

Helfand, under questioning by defense attorney Kenneth Royall, said he believed sponsors would withdraw their support if the Garden were not permitted to include title fights among the weekly shows.

He said the televised fights have attracted "the attention of millions of people in the United States and this has had the effect of creating an interest in boxing which wouldn't exist without television."

Ruling

Judge Ryan recently found the IBC, Madison Square Garden Corp., and their officers guilty of attempting to monopolize championship boxing bouts in violation of antitrust laws. He is currently hearing decrees to fix steps the IBC must take to meet government demands.

The government is seeking dissolution of the sprawling IBC organization, demanding that Jim Norris and Arthur M. Wirtz be ordered to sell within six months all their stock in the Madison Square Garden Corp., and resign as directors. The government also asks that the Garden be restrained from promoting title fights.

Norris is president of the IBC in New York. Wirtz is president of the IBC in Chicago. Both have been asked also to dissolve the IBC in Michigan and Missouri.

The IBC, in its brief, has agreed to limit itself to two championship fights a year.

Smaller Nations Of World Question Future Of Olympics Under Conditions Now In Vogue

NEW YORK, May 22 (AP)—Many of the smaller nations of the world fear the titanic athletic struggle between the United States and and Russia—if not arrested—may ultimately kill the Olympic Games the president of the International Olympic Committee said today.

Avery Brundage of Chicago said this probably will be among the problems discussed at a six-day series of Olympic conferences at Evian, France, beginning June 3.

"Understand, I don't share such fears because I feel we can take whatever measures are necessary before the situation gets out of hand," he added. "But we do know there is deep concern among the smaller and less wealthy countries.

"We have heard the opinion expressed in France, Switzerland even Great Britain, that it appears useless to try to compete against the United States and Russia who throw such powerful resources behind their teams.

Opinion

"Many of the countries regard both the United States and Russia as professional and feel that they are at a disadvantage with purely amateur squads."

Brundage said in these quarters the Yanks, with their athletic scholarships and subsidies, are regarded as no purer than the Russians, whose teams are openly supported by the state.

The meetings at Evian among Olympic committees and the various international federations will be largely exploratory to make recommendations for the full session of the IOC, scheduled at Sofia, Bulgaria, in September. Few radical changes are likely at either session.

Dealing

"Remember we are dealing with some 80 nations and 20 different sports groups," Brundage said. "Changes come hard and slow."

Brundage said he doubted the controversial Olympic oath — the promise of each competitor that "I am and intend to remain an amateur"—will be reinvoked. It was waived before the Melbourne Olympics because, Brundage insisted, it was "grossly misunderstood."

Civil Rights To Be Delayed

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP)—Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn), an outspoken supporter of civil rights legislation, said tonight Congress is not likely to enact it before this year's adjournment.

This morning the legislation made its first progress in the Senate Judiciary Committee in two months, but it remained highly uncertain when it might make more.

The committee rejected on a 6-4 vote a Southern proposal to knock out key parts of the bill the administration, with some Democratic support, has been urging on Congress.

Humphrey gave his estimate during a radio interview (Mutual-Reporters Roundup). He was asked "who is responsible for the delay and reluctance of the Democratic-controlled Congress to act on civil rights?"

Humphrey said it was a "bipartisan sin," and went on to predict that before this Congress "completes its work—though not necessarily this year," it will make "a substantial advance in the civil rights field."

Memorial Day Historical Facts Revealed To Kiwanians

THE HISTORICAL background of Memorial Day was detailed for members of the Stroudsburg Kiwanis Club yesterday by Dr. John C. Appel, head of the social studies Kiwanis Club yesterday by Dr. John C. Teachers College.

The holiday is generally recognized as having originated in 1865 in the South, where women gathered to scatter flowers on the graves of soldiers and sailors killed in the War Between the States.

The idea spread to the North and in 1868, Gen. John Logan—who was commander of the Grand Army of the Republic—ordered that the graves of dead comrades be decorated on a day of remembrance. He chose May 30 since that was a day when flowers were available in all parts of the country.

Sectionalism which flared in the next several decades prevented the observance to be held nationally, the speaker said. This disunity reached its climax in the years following 1881 when the GAR tried to exclude everything in the Memorial Day observance but reverent tributes to the fallen Union veterans.

In the 1900s, Dr. Appel, said, both North and South were brought closer together because of the Spanish-American War and World War One, and much of the sense of conflict was lost.

As the GAR declined in number, the American Legion took over the celebration and Memorial Day is now held to honor veterans of all wars—living as well as dead. It is for men and women the world over, the speaker said.

Dr. Appel was introduced by Clement Price, program chairman. Elwood Hintze, president, conducted the meeting.

Dr. C. W. Dupee formally inducted Richard Welteroth and Walter Marshall into membership. Robert Schell led group singing.

Roy Lloyd Wins Democratic Nod

ROY F. LLOYD won Democratic nomination for Councilman from East Stroudsburg Sixth Ward in the primary.

Unofficial returns gave Lloyd 100 votes to 85 for his opponent Foster L. Miller. On the Republican ticket William H. Schnaitman was unopposed and got 57 votes.

A. R. Newell Services Held

FUNERAL services for Arthur R. Newell, 76, of 829 Main St., Stroudsburg, were held at 2 p.m. yesterday at the Wood Funeral Home, Branchville, N.J. Burial was in the Branchville Cemetery.

Local arrangements were made by the William H. Clark Funeral Home.

Pocono Pines Resident Dies

MISS GRACE Keefer, 65, of Pocono Pines, died last night in the Monroe County General Hospital after a short illness.

Miss Keefer was the daughter of the late Roberta and Elizabeth Ginnarf Keefer, of Kingston, Pa.

The funeral arrangements will be announced by the Lanterman Funeral Home.

It's a FACT!
FRIGIDAIRE ROOM CONDITIONERS are QUIET!

LOOK
what's happened to summer

- it's cooler—Full-Room Circulation, full rated capacity, factory-tested, on every model means you enjoy more cooling—more comfort.
- it's cleaner—Full-Filtration from big, king-size filter reduces pollen, dirt and dust—for better health and cleaner living.
- it's quieter—Keep windows closed—shut off outside noise. Unit itself is whisper-quiet—if it weren't so comfortable you wouldn't know it was running.
- it's enjoyable—You'll sleep better, eat better, feel better. So cool, so quiet, so comfortable—you'll actually enjoy hot weather.

Designed, built and tested by Frigidaire to be the quietest and the coolingest conditioners ever!

Dr. William T. Toewe

Dr. Toewe Officially Named Governor Of Rotary District At International Convention

(Special To Daily Record)

LUCERNE, Switzerland—William R. Toewe, an optometrist in East Stroudsburg, was elected Governor of District 741 of Rotary International, world-wide service club organization, at Rotary's 48th annual convention, which is concluding its sessions here today. He will take office July 1 and serve for the 1957-58 fiscal year.

As District Governor, he will coordinate the activities of the 37 Rotary clubs in District 741, one of nine Rotary Districts in Pennsylvania. During the year, he will visit each club to offer advice and assistance on Rotary service activities and administration.

In East Stroudsburg, Dr. Toewe has been president of the Board of Trustees of State Teachers College, vice president of Community Chest, and a director of the Crippled Children's Assn. and the polio organization. He has been a member of Rotary Club of Stroudsburg since 1929 and is secretary and a past president of the club.

A continually growing organization, Rotary International now encompasses 99 countries throughout the free world. The 442,000 business and professional executives who are members of more than 9,300 Rotary clubs work together to advance the Rotary program of community-betterment activities, high standards in business and professional life, and the furtherance of international understanding, good will, and peace.

To promote international understanding, Rotary International is now engaged in a world-wide program of Rotary Foundation Fellowships, which provides grants for one year of study abroad, as ambassadors of good will, to outstanding college graduates. In the past 11 years, Rotary Fellowships have been awarded to 954 young men and women from 61 countries for study in 42 countries. Grants average $2,500 and total more than $2,250,000.

State Soil Official Speaks To Lions

A. NORMAN Detrick, a member of the state soil conservation service, was the principal speaker at the Lions Club dinner-meeting Tuesday night. The meeting, which was the finale of the current fiscal year, was held at the Penn-Stroud Hotel's ballroom.

In addition to his speech—where he stressed the enormous wastage of top-soil in the United States—Detrick showed films which emphasized the need for soil conservation. He was introduced by Jacob Kintz, who is, himself, a member of the forestry service.

Next Week

Sy Katz, former president, reported on attending the necrology services which begin on Sunday. He also announced that Woodrow Miller, Andres, is the new district governor.

The club's president, Harold Miller, announced that the next regular meeting will be held next Tuesday at the hotel of Lion member Alex Davidduke, in Middle Smithfield Township. Installation of the new officers will be effected at this meeting.

Cub Pack To Hold Outing On Sunday

CHERRY VALLEY—Cub Pack 94 of Cherry Valley will hold its monthly meeting Sunday at Snow Hill State Park.

The Cubs and their parents will meet at the Paradise Fish Hatchery at 2 p.m. and be shown through the grounds.

They will then go to the state park for a family picnic supper.

Evangelist To Launch Sermon Series

LARRY McGUILL, evangelist from Wyckoff, N. J., will be conducting a series of meetings at Berean Church, 23 S. Sixth St., Stroudsburg, from May 23-25.

McGuill, a native of New Jersey, schooled at the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, and Wheaton College, Wheaton, Ill., has wide experience in the gospel ministry. After having led singing in campaigns throughout the country, he returned to his home town of Ridgewood, N. J., and began a new church, which he pastored for several years.

Invited by General Douglas MacArthur to help in evangelizing Japan during the occupation, McGuill joined forces with the Pocket Testament League for this task.

Services begin at 7:30 p.m. and the public is cordially invited to attend.

County Farmers Eligible To Vote In Referendum

MONROE COUNTY farmers were told yesterday who will be eligible to vote in the June 20 wheat marketing quota referendum.

D. H. Griffith, chairman, Monroe County Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Committee, put it this way: All persons are eligible to vote in the June 20 quota referendum who will share in the 1958 wheat crop from a farm in the commercial wheat area on which the wheat acreage to be harvested, plus any acreage to be placed in the wheat Acreage Reserve, will be more than 15 acres.

Point

Griffith pointed out that such farmers are eligible to vote even though their names are not on the County ASC registers. Farmers eligible to vote include those who are entitled to share in the proceeds of the wheat crop as owner-operator, cash tenant, standing rent or fixed rent tenant, landlord of a share tenant, share tenant, or sharecropper. A guardian, administrator, executor, or trustee who engaged in the production of wheat may vote, but the person for whom he is acting will not be eligible to vote.

Griffith also explained that where a farmer's eligibility to vote cannot be proved immediately, he may nevertheless vote a "challenged" ballot, and if the farmer is judged "eligible" from the facts presented, his vote will be tabulated as valid. The determination must be made within four days after the date of the referendum.

New Signs For Highways

TRENTON, N. J., May 22 (AP)—The state Highway Department today announced a new type of sign to warn motorists they are approaching a traffic circle.

The new signs are diamond-shaped with a yellow background color and black lettering. They bear the word "Circle" and a circle is drawn on them.

Your Horoscope Today

By FRANCIS DRAKE

FOR THURSDAY MAY 23, 1957

March 21 to April 20 (Aries)—Develop more perspective in planning present programs. Rid these of details which are unessential and time-consuming. Heed advice of "knowing" heads.

April 21 to May 21 (Taurus)—Don't fall into a lethargic attitude. You'll only lose ground that way. Control emotions, making them work for, not against you. Complete unfinished tasks NOW.

May 22 to June 21 (Gemini)—If controversial subjects arise, be discreet, diplomatic. Study day's plans. Do they fill true needs? Once your goal has been determined, proceed with dispatch.

June 22 to July 23 (Cancer)—Check your performance regularly to determine how effective your methods. Your likeable personality is your best salesman. First impressions are lasting, so put your best foot forward and reap rewards.

July 24 to August 23 (Leo)—A moderate sort of day that can be good or otherwise, depending on your approach and handling of situations. Give your talents a break. Be systematic and you will achieve.

August 24 to September 23 (Virgo)—While planetary influences may aid, you can't leave everything to them. Switch from your easy-going normal routine to a go-getting pace. There's satisfaction in a job well done.

September 24 to October 23 (Libra)—You should have little difficulty if you carry out duties in a gracious, cheerful manner. Reading, research, study favored. Avoid waste motion, carelessness.

October 24 to November 22 (Scorpio)—Do not let irritations deter you from completing assigned tasks. There's much to be accomplished. If perturbed, call on your common sense and humor to help you over the rough spots. Have cheer!

November 23 to December 21 (Sagittarius)—Your aspects augur for success if what you attempt is reasonable, honorable. Do your best; family, loved ones are counting on you.

December 22 to January 20 (Capricorn)—Give encouragement to those who are indecisive and wavering and you'll gain in the doing. The world is always looking for leaders. Be one of them and you can improve a mediocre day.

January 21 to February 19 (Aquarius)—Results of efforts may not be immediately noted. Don't lose heart, however; press on more assiduously. Good effort, properly directed, is always rewarded eventually.

February 20 to March 20 (Pisces)—With discreet, intelligent management your outlook can be favorable in both personal and business matters. Let no good opportunity get by. Stress essentials.

YOU BORN TODAY are loyal, likeable, dependable; a blessing to your community, a big help to those in trouble or illness. Never underestimate the good that true knowledge and further education can bring you and yours. Strive always after honorable attainment and don't neglect your own needs while helping others to a better life. Cultivate your talent for music, literature, acting, any of the arts.

Both Sides Contribute Fuel

HARRISBURG, May 23 (AP)—Both Republicans and Democrats contributed fuel over the weekend to the boiling budget controversy with one side lauding paring efforts and the other condemning them.

Gov. Leader assailed proposed GOP reductions as a "meat-ax budget cut" while a top lawmaker on the other side contended they would provide "enough funds to continue the present level of expenditures."

Nurse Killed In Accident

ABINGTON, May 23 (AP) — A 46-year-old nurse was killed last night in an auto collision on Byberry Rd., Huntingdon Valley, as she drove home from work at Frankford Hospital.

She was Mrs. Stella Rhodes, whose auto collided with another car driven by Donald Dove, 24. Dove told police he skidded on a grade wet with rain.

All 45 Sitting Judges In Pennsylvania Nominated

HARRISBURG, May 22 (AP)—Pennsylvania voters nominated all 45 sitting judges who are seeking new terms on the bench.

Altogether 51 Municipal, Orphans and Common Pleas Court judges and six associate judges, were selected in yesterday's primary election to make up the November slates.

Thirty-two judges, generally incumbents, were assured election when they were nominated by both Republicans and Democrats.

Under the state election code only judicial candidates can file as nominees for both parties.

Three Couples Seek Licenses

THREE COUPLES have applied for marriage licenses at the office of Prothonotary N. Henry Fenner.

They are Edward Robert Woolever, East Stroudsburg, and Norma Jacquelyn Speier, Southampton, Pa.; Claude Andrew Batchler, RD 1, Mount Bethel, and Pauline Marlyn McArthur, Stroudsburg; and John Edwin Andrews, Freemansburg, and Nancy Lees Almond, Bristol.

Suspending Operation

MEXICO CITY, May 22 (AP)—Officials say the government-operated Clasa movie studios are suspending operations to ease the competition on private studios, which face bankruptcy.

Dr. John G. Gill

Rider Official To Speak At Bangor High

BANGOR — Officials of the Bangor Area Joint High School have announced that Dr. John G. Gill, vice president of Rider College in Trenton, N.J., will be guest speaker at the annual commencement exercises to be held for the Class of 1957 in the high school auditorium on Tuesday, June 18 at 8 p.m.

Dr. Gill will speak on the theme, "The Responsibilities of American Citizenship." Arrangements for the annual function are being made by a committee composed of Martha Sintson, Alice Fenner, Sandra DeMarcantonio and Janeen Wills assisted by Mrs. Homer Osborne, class adviser.

The speaker attended the Woodberry Forest Preparatory School in Virginia; received degrees from Washington and Lee University, Lafayette College, Rutgers University and Columbia University. In addition to being vice president at Rider he is a member of the Trenton Banking Co., and a member of the Bordentown Military School board of trustees.

He is a member of the National Education Assn., Eastern Business Teachers Assn., American Assn. of School Administrators and the Eastern Assn. of Professional Schools for Teachers. He is a former Governor of Kiwanis; a member of the following masonic orders, Scottish Rite, Tall Cedars and Shrine; the Elks, Moose and Sons of the American Revolution.

He has been listed in Who's Who in America; America's Young Men; Who's Who in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware; Who's Who in American Education; and the Biographical Directory of Leaders in Education.

MR. AND MRS. Phil LaBar and daughter Lanette, of Hollywood, Florida, are spending two weeks here as the houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. William Fetherman and daughter Sandra.

Charles Schuler Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schuler Sr., will celebrate his fifteenth birthday on Friday, May 25. Charles is in the ninth grade at Stroud Union High School.

Leroy Cyphers, a student at Penn State University, spent the weekend here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cyphers.

1st Lt. and Mrs. Alden Fetherman and Mrs. Marie Williams spent several weeks as the guests of Mrs. Florence Marsh. Lt. Fetherman had been stationed at Goose Bay, Newfoundland, for the past year. The Feathermans are now motoring to Orlando, Florida, where he will be stationed. Enroute they will take Mrs. Williams to her home at Donaldson, Tenn.

Mrs. Claude Cyphers, Mrs. Beatrice Swink and Mrs. Haviland Heller, members of the Children's Day Program committee at St. Jonh's Lutheran Sunday School, met at the Heller residence on Monday night and made plans for the entertainment. Recitations, dialogues and musical numbers were selected and parts are being sent to the children of the church school. June 9, at 2:30 p.m., has been selected for the date on which the program will be presented. First practice will be held on Tuesday night, May 28, at 7, at the church.

Choir practice will be held at St. John's Lutheran Church on Tuesday night, May 28, at 8.

Arrive refreshed and ready for fun!

Vacation via Lackawanna

Vacations are to relax . . . so why should you drive your car through heavy traffic? These days, smart people ride the Lackawanna and arrive relaxed, ready for fun!

It's swift and comfortable. Every convenience right at your elbow. Courteous attendants ready to serve you. And it's surprisingly low in cost—even for the whole family—with Lackawanna's Bargain Fare Plans!

Many of America's vacation resorts are reached on or via the Lackawanna—the Poconos, Niagara Falls, the Great Lakes . . . or on to Chicago, where convenient connections are made for trains to the National Parks, Canadian Rockies, and Pacific Coast resorts!

This year, let the Lackawanna take the work out of your vacation trip. Ride Lackawanna and arrive refreshed! You and your family will enjoy your vacation so much more!

NOTICE

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF MONROE COUNTY, PENNA.

NOTICE is hereby given that an application will be made to the above Court on the 3rd day of June, 1957, at 12:30 o'clock, P.M., E.S.T., for the purpose of obtaining a charter for a proposed non-profit corporation to be organized under the Non-Profit Corporation Law of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, approved May 5, 1933, as amended. The name of the proposed corporation is Strawberry Hill Fishing and Hunting Association. The purposes for which it is to be organized are to promote and encourage among the members thereof social enjoyment and athletic sports, particularly the athletic sports of angling, or fishing with rod, hook and line, and hunting and shooting, according to law, and to propagate by artificial means or otherwise, fish and game, and preserve the same, and also for these purposes to own personal property and to own and hold in fee simple, or for any less estate or interest in lands, tenements and hereditaments to the value and amount permitted by law. This is a corporation which does not contemplate pecuniary gain or profit, incidental or otherwise, to its members. The Articles of Incorporation have been filed in the Office of the Prothonotary of the above Court.

ESSTC Baccalaureate To Be Held Sunday At College

BACCALAUREATE SERVICES for East Stroudsburg State Teachers College seniors will be held Sunday at 3 p. m. in the college auditorium.

The speaker will be Rev. Colin F. Miller, dean of the chapel and professor of philosophy and religion at Hamilton College, Clinton, N. Y.

Rev. Colin F. Miller

Rev. Miller was born in Scotland in 1911. He was educated in the schools of Glasgow and his college and graduate work were done at the University of Glasgow.

He was licensed to preach by the Glasgow Presbytery in 1935 and ordained at Auchtergaven, Perth, Scotland in 1937. He came to the U. S. in 1948 as an exchange pastor. A year later he returned to his church at Auchtergaven.

Reputation

In 1950 he was called to Knox Presbyterian Church in Ottawa, Canada. After seven years there he accepted his present position at Hamilton. He has won an enviable reputation for his speaking ability and is in wide demand as an orator.

Joining him in the ESSTC baccalaureate service will be a local Presbyterian minister, Rev. John A. Bollier, pastor of Stroudsburg First Presbyterian Church, who will give the invocation and benediction.

The college chorus will sing "America, the Beautiful," "Let Us Break Bread Together" and "O, Be Joyful in the Lord."

GOP Agrees On Slash

HARRISBURG, May 22 (AP)—The biggest job of budget-cutting in the Commonwealth's history wound up today with Republican legislative leadership reportedly agreed on a hefty slash of a tenative $84,400,000.

The ax fell heaviest—by 30 million dollars—on the $221,100,000 appropriation Gov. Leader asked for the Welfare Department. Other cuts range from 10 millions for Public Instruction down to $200,000 for the Treasury Department.

A GOP source, who asked not to be identified, disclosed figures showing that 16 of 30 state agencies would see their budgets reduced in the Republican sponsored general appropriations bill to be introduced next week.

Hanlon Wins Verdict In Scranton

By The Associated Press

THREE Pennsylvania mayors lost renominaaion bids in Tuesday's primary election while the mayors of Pittsburgh and Scranton, seeking unprecedented fourth terms, defeated their opponents hands down.

Twenty-three cities will elect mayors next November. But only 13 incumbents will be on the ballot.

Defeated incumbents are Democrat Edward C. Corcoran of Beaver Falls, Democrat Frank Binda of Jeannette and Republican Allen M. Wolfe of Sunbury.

Mayor David L. Lawrence of Pittsburgh, a democratic national committeeman, had little trouble beating former congressman Theodore L. Moritz.

Scranton Mayor James T. Hanlon, also a Democrat, swamped Edward Lavelle, a former policeman at the State Capitol in Harrisburg.

In the general election Lawrence will face John A. Drew and Hanlon will be opposed by Harry E. Lewis.

Motorcyclist Fatally Injured

BUFFALO, N. Y., May 22 (AP) — A 22-year-old motorcyclist was injured fatally today when his vehicle struck the rear of a bakery truck and he was thrown into the path of an automobile.

The victim, Kenneth Stapleton, was dragged for about 20 feet along the pavement before the car could be stopped.

Reckless Driving Charges Lodged In Strike

Both Sides Scheduled To Meet Today

By Armon Williams

BANGOR—An attempt to reach agreement of future picketing at Blue Ridge Textile plants will be made at a 4 p.m. meeting today.

Company attorney Edmund Turzo said last night that officials "on both sides" have agreed to attend the meeting.

Meanwhile Blue Ridge plant superintendent William D. Scott told The Daily Record in a statement released through Turtzo that "greater numbers of employes are returning to work each day."

Said Scott: "The company is greatly encouraged by the harmony and willingness of employes to establish and continue good relationships."

Scott said that since "the fear of any riotous acts on the part of pickets has been removed many persons who previously had not reported to work are now reporting."

Picket Lines

He told The Record that picket lines are being conducted "in an orderly fashion." He said the "assistance of constant police protection" has been "most helpful."

Turtzo said there were no results from the appeal to ban picketing. A petition asking for the ban was presented in Northampton County Court on Tuesday before Judge William Barthold.

The attorney released on "open leter" to employes inviting them to send representatives to management. He said they would receive "prorapt consideration."

He maintained that employes do not have a "bargaining agent." Turtzo pointed to testimony by Joseph Rader, Textile Workers Union of America, before a National Labor Relations Board hearing in Easton to support this.

At that hearing Rader admitted that the union does not have the support of a "majority of Blue Ridge workers" and was "advising" rather than acting as an agent for the workers on strike.

POINT OF FULL RETURNS on Tuesday night was the chart set up at The Daily Record office. During the night a tight-packed crowd waited for latest returns to be posted. Most of the time it seemed to observers that there were more people looking on than there had been in any of Monroe County's 35 voting district election houses during the day. Tornadoes Continue To Hit Midwest

By The Associated Press

A NEW outbreak of tornadoes kept storm-buffeted sections of the midcontinent on the alert yesterday.

Twisters were sighted in Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma, continuing the violent weather pattern that has claimed 51 lives so far this week. Tornadoes killed 14 in southeastern Missouri Tuesday and 37 in the Kansas City area Monday.

Yesterday's twisters danced harmlessly in the air or touched the ground only to spend their fury on open farm land, according to Weather Bureau reports.

Weather forecasters said a new low pressure system has formed in Texas, providing the necessary ingredients for violent thunderstorms and tornadoes in the Southern Plains and lower Missouri Valley.

Oklahoma

Numerous twisters were sighted in eastern Oklahoma and extreme southeastern Kansas. The storm activity spread eastward and other tornadoes were sighted at Lamar and near Sedalia and Steelville in Missouri.

St. Louis was placed under a two-hour alert after the tornado was sighted at Steelville, apparently moving in the direction of the metropolis.

Relentless storms dumped four inches of rain in Newkirk, Okla. Heavy rains and strong winds in southern Illinois caused flooding in several communities and heavy damage to the area's fruit crop. At least 50 families were forced from their homes in Marion and Harrisburg.

Locally damaging wind storms swept over the Tennessee Valley.

Clearing skies and southerly winds warmed parts of the Midwest, Chicago had an 85 reading, highest of the year so far. Readings in the 90s were common in the Deep South.

But a surge of Canadian air rolled over the Northern Plains and upper Mississippi Valley. Afternoon temperatures were in the 40s and 50s. Frost warnings were issued for most of the area from Montana and Wyoming into northwest Minnesota.

Showers dampened much of the West, except California and the Southwest. Thunderstorms scattered hail across parts of the Rockies and plateau states.

Cool air over the mid-Atlantic states held afternoon temperatures in the 60s.

AFL-CIO Adopts Union Funds Code

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP)—The AFL-CIO today adopted a code that President George Meany said would have "very definitely prevented" such misuse of union funds as is charged to Teamsters boss Dave Beck.

The code contains a set of accounting principles calling for regular audits. It bars union loans to union officers for their personal profit or to firms with which a union has labor contract dealings.

Meany said the code, adopted unanimously by the AFL-CIO Executive Council, was being recommended for adoption by all the federation's 140 unions. He said many already have broad financial safeguards, but others will have to amend their constitutions to adopt necessary changes.

The code was prepared by the federation's Ethical Practices Committee with the help of union secretary-treasurers and five private accounting firms.

Basis

The code is based on the stated promise that unions are in business to improve wages, hours and working conditions for members and not for making money. It says union money should be handled accordingly and not for personal profit of union officials.

Meanwhile, a group of top Teamsters Union officials, headed by the union's Secretary-Treasurer John F. English, discussed plans to seek Beck's ouster as president because of the Senate Rackets Committee charges he misused large sums of the union's funds.

English, who talked freely about his plans last night after being named to Beck's place as an AFL-CIO vice president, would not talk to newsmen today. But it was learned he was consulting with fellow Teamsters leaders on a "Beck must go" campaign and union clean-up.

The plan of the English group is to demand that Beck convene the Teamsters executive board soon, within the next week or so. If he refuses, the group intends to assemble the board anyway to demand Beck's resignation.

Despite the new AFL-CIO code's declaration against unions making loans to firms with which they bargain, Meany told newsman he thought it was all right for a union to lend money to a firm temporarily to keep it in business and save union members' jobs.

Legal Action Revealed In Bangor Issue

By Leonard Randolph

BANGOR — Reckless driving charges have been formally lodged against the alleged drivers of two trucks which crashed through picket lines at Blue Ridge Textile plants two weeks ago.

Drivers were identified as William D. Scott and Gordon Frey. Scott is Blue Ridge plant superintendent and Frey is a plant employe.

Borough night police officer Walter Heard said last night that informations against Scott and Frey were filed with Justice of the Peace Raymond Trayes in Bangor.

Trayes said no date has been est for the hearing, as yet.

Date

The incident from which the charges grow occurred on Thursday, May 9, in front of the Messinger St. plant of the textile company.

Two trucks—one of them a tractor-trailer—drove through a picket line and a crowd at the scene. Observers and patrolman Heard said after the incident that several persons "narrowly escaped" injury or death when the trucks drove through the crowd.

In a subsequent report to Burgess Hayden Pritchard, Heard said that in his opinion "the method by which the trucks were driven out of the parking area was highly dangerous and it's amazing that no one was killed or injured."

Fine Runs Far Behind Opponent

By The Associated Press

TWO veteran Democratic mayors won handily, but former Republican Gov. John S. Fine went down to defeat in Tuesday's off-year primary elections.

Fine lost out in his bid for a political comeback in Luzerne County, whre he had held control of the GOP organization for 30 years. He polled only 33,891 votes in the race for nomination to Luzerne County Court, well behind the majorities of over 50,000 each racked up by his organization-backed opponents.

Pittsburgh's Mayor David L. Lawrence and Mayor James T. Hanlon of Scranton, both won Democratic renomination for unprecedented fourth terms. With one district missing, Lawrence polled 53,257 votes against former Congressman Theodore L. Moritz, who got 11,903. Lawrence will run against John A. Drew, former Allegheny County Common Pleas Judge, in November. Drew won the Republican mayoralty nomination over Joseph A. McArdle, former Democratic city councilman.

Scranton

Hanlon won 13,819 votes against his Democratic opponent, Edward Lavelle, who had 2,118. Harry E. Lewis is the Republican nominee for mayor of Scranton. He defeated two GOP opponents, Thomas Evans and Daniel Beynon.

With no statewide contests and a dearth of interesting issues, only about 20 per cent of the voters turned out. An exception was in Luzerne County, where some 60 per cent of the eligibles went to the polls.

Fifty-seven candidates for judgeships, including 45 incumbents, were selected. Many of the sitting judges cross-filed and will be unopposed in the fall.

In a special election in Montour County, Democrat Donald Whitenight defeated Republican William E. Booth to regain the state House seat he lost last November to the late John R. Quigg.

House Passes Bus Legislation

HARRISBURG, May 22 (AP) — School buses would have to be equipped with flashing red signal lights, front and rear, under a bill passed unanimously by the House today and sent to the Senate.

The measure amends the vehicle code to require that one such lamp be visible from the front and one from the rear. The lamps would have to be mounted "as high as practicable" upon the body of the bus. The measure, passed 170-0, was sponsored by Reps. Markley Re-Lehigh and Kornick D-Fayette.

Ike Declares Fight For Budget

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP) — President Eisenhower declared today, with a glint of fire in his eye, that he'll fight to the end for his slash-threatened budget.

Eisenhower told a news conference a spending reduction voted yesterday by the House Appropriations Committee would "cut directly into defense"—in the vital fields of planes and guided missiles.

The President said he would give more enthusiastic support in next year's congressional elections to those Republican lawmakers who support his program than to those who buck it.

And he served notice that, in trying to get his program enacted, he'll work with "sympathetic" lawmakers outside the GOP leadership — but not, he emphasized, without letting the Republican leaders know that he's doing so.

Comments

Eisenhower's comments came less than 24 hours after his second radio-TV address in a week on behalf of his $71,800,000,000 budget, which a number of Republicans as well as Democrats in both houses of Congress have been voting to whittle sharply.

He said public opinion, as reflected in letters and telegrams to the White House, has been swinging toward support of his spending program. The White House said later that such reaction to his talk last night has been favorable, 9-1. This speech dealt specifically with the $3,865,000,000 foreign aid bill.

Budget and related matters dominated Eisenhower's meeting with nearly 200 newsmen.

Manner

The President's manner was phatic rather than angry. He seemed to enjoy putting some of his firmer views on the record. He commented to an aide, in fact, "Well, that was a short half-hour," when the session ended.

About the only nondomestic matter of importance that came up was disarmament, and here too Eisenhower spoke with emphasis.

He said Americans must be sure "we are not being picayunish" — that "we ought to have an open mind" on Russian proposals.

To some it sounded as if he might be throwing down the views expressed recently by Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, who said the Russians can't be trusted to abide by any disarmament pact.

However, Eisenhower went on to say, in this same vein, that the United States must insist on ironclad guarantees in dealing with "a government which has a history of breaking of treaties."

Smith Claims Girl Alive With Friend

HACKENSACK, N.J., May 22 (AP) —Edgar Smith testified today he left Victoria Zielinski, 15, in a Mahwah gravel pit in the company of his friend, Donald Hommell, hours before her body was found there March 5.

Smith, 23, an ex-Marine who is charged with the bludgeon slaying of the Ramsey girl, took the stand in his own defense at his murder trial.

He spoke in a clear voice and at one point raised his voice almost to a shout when he charged his friend with being present at the gravel pit during the night of March 5.

At another point in his testimony Hommell was brought into the court room and seated so that he could face the defendant. Hommell glared at Smith but Smith only glanced at the Ramsey man.

Activities

Before a hushed court Smith traced his activities from the night of March 3 before the Mahwah murder until his arrest about 11:30 p.m., March 5, at the home of his mother-in-law in Ridgewood.

Much of his testimony followed the pattern his attorney, Jon E. Selser, indicated it would at the trial's opening.

Smith, 23, was called after Bergen County Judge Arthur J. O'Dea dismissed a motion for a directed verdict of acquittal.

The motion was made by Smith's attorney, John E. Selser, when the state concluded its case after calling its 33rd witness to the stand.

Claim

Selser claimed "There is no evidence to support a jury issue of a first degree murder case," adding:

"Whoever did this thing has not been brought before justice."

County Prosecutor Guy W. Calissi argued however, "The fact that the defendant said in his statement to police that 'I did it' is sufficient to defeat Mr. Selser's motion."

The 60-page unsigned statement, purportedly made to police by Smith, was entered yesterday into evidence. It quoted Smith as saying:

"I must have been the one who really did it."

Administration Drums Up Aid Support

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP)—The Eisenhower administration appears to have drummed up some fresh support and enthusiasm for its $3,865,000,000 foreign aid program in the last 24 hours.

Secretary of State Dulles carried the fight for the program to the Senate Foreign Relations committee today and won the praise of several senators for his "persuasive" presentation.

One of the committee members, Sen. Capehart (R-Ind), said that "for the first time in 10 years I am going to vote for the support this program because it is sound in principle."

Reaction

The White House announced public reaction to President Eisenhower's speech in defense of his mutual security policies last night was running "better than 9-1" in favor of the administration.

Despite these apparent gains, however, the big foreign aid bill still faces a battle in Congress. Demands for substantial cuts in foreign aid and spending persist and are supported by many leading members of Congress.

One of these was Sen. Byrd (D-Va), chairman of the Senate Finance Committee. He called today for "a complete blueprint" of future foreign aid spending. Byrd said in a statement the President omitted from his nationwide-radio-TV address last night the fact that more than six billion dollars of unexpended balances remain from previous foreign aid appropriations.

During the course of his arguments before the foreign relations committee today, Dulles said he still believes in the philosophy that if you don't spend money to help your friends abroad you may eventually "have to spend blood."

Haiti Moves Toward Order

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti, May 22 (AP)—Haiti's military government issued fire-without-warning orders to police today in an effort to break up looting, arson and sabotage.

It banned political meetings and demonstrations. The aim was to force this Caribbean Negro republic back into a regime of order after six months of turbulence and government upsets.

Brig. Gen. Leon Cantave, the mild army chief who yesterday sent home the seven members of a governing Executive Council and set up army rule, was accused by the ousted councilmen of being an outlaw "in open rebellion against the executive authority." He was faced with strikes and lockouts in Port au Prince which crippled business.

Tactics

Strike tactics have overthrown three Haitian governments since Dec. 12, but there was no indication the resistance movement was spreading to the five provinces outside Port au Prince.

On the contrary, the new regime was reported to have been accepted with hilarious rejoicing at Cap Haitien, the main northern port, where a "Committee of Public Safety" had set up an anti-council movement.

In the capital itself, most newspapers also acclaimed the army's action.

Sex Offender Admits Crime

WATERBURY, Conn., May 22 (AP)—George J. Davies, 38, convicted sex offender, confessed today to slaying two girls between May 9 and 13. He choked them first and then stabbed them with a screwdriver, said State's Atty. William B. Fitzgerald.

Davies, good-looking and slightly built, told police he killed Gaetane Boivin, 17, a French-Canadian girl on May 9, and Brenda Jane Doucette, 9, on May 13.

Located

Brenda's body was found first and on Monday police announced Davies' confession. Gaetane's body was found yesterday. Police said Davies finally broke down and confessed to this slaying at 1 a.m. today, but it wasn't made public until some 13 hours later.

Gaetane's fully clothed body was found only three miles from the place where Brenda's body was found. Brenda had been stabbed 22 times. Three more than Gaetane.

Leader Blasts PMA As Part Of Budget Cut

HARRISBURG, May 22 (AP)—Gov. Leader said tonight the Pennsylvania Manufacturers' Assn. is behind Republican plans to slash his budget by 94½ million dollars.

He called on rank-and-file Republican lawmakers to refuse to be used as what he termed "lackeys and lickspittles" for the PMA.

"I know there are Republican senators and House members who privately are disgusted with this dictation," he said in a statement.

Chairman Wood (R-Lancaster) declined comment but Rep. Johnson, House GOP floor leader, replied that The Associated Press carried an account of budget reductions last Friday.

"Nobody from the PMA dictated anything to us," he told a newsman.

Lawmakers

The $1,107,000,000 general appropriation bill reached the desk of the lawmakers in printed form during the day.

Wood said his committee would formally approve the measure tomorrow and place it in position for floor debate next Monday when Democrats were expected to offer amendments.

The House Republican caucus also has fixed Monday for a closed door review of the huge spending measure.

The Senate took notice of the GOP spending plan with a rousing debate on what Sen. Barr, Democratic state chairman, called Republican "steamroller tactics."

Employment Feeling

CLEARFIELD, May 22 (AP) — Superintendents of the Central Pennsylvania Conference of the Methodist Church today spoke out against minister's wives accepting full-time employment.

News In Brief

High Policy Decision

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP)—The White House indicated today a high policy level decision regarding efforts to get together with Russia on disarmament may be reached at a meeting of the National Security Council tomorrow.

Red Cross Drive

KANSAS CITY, May 22 (AP)—Civic and Red Cross officials today launched a drive for one million dollars to aid victims of the tornado that killed 37 people in the southern suburbs of Kansas City and nearby com-munities Monday night.

Preparations Resume

ATOMIC TEST SITE, Nev., May 22 (AP) — Preparations were resumed tonight for exploding an atomic test device in the morning but weather conditions made the outlook doubtful.

Senators Link Hands

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP)—Republican senators linked hands today in a united assault on Sen. Morse (D-Ore.) for saying that President Eisenhower and Dave Beck are "the same kind of immoralists."

Declaration Of War

HARRISBURG, May 22 (AP)—The Senate tonight was asked to declare open warfare on the hundreds of pigeons inhabiting window ledges and roofs of State Capitol buildings.

Hundreds Of Protests Bring Rematch Of TV Bloomgarden - Snodgrass Battle Of Bones

NEW YORK, May 22 (AP)—The two contestants in the disputed "battle of the bones" will be rematched on NBC-TV's "Twenty One" quiz program Monday, June 3.

This was announced today by NBC and Barry & Enright Productions, producers of "Twenty-One."

The contestants are Hank Bloomgarden, champion, and Jim Snodgrass, challenger.

Authorities

"Because of the complicated situation, details of the June 3 rematch must still be worked out," NBC said.

NBC said the rematch was decided upon after Encyclopedia Britannica authorities declared there was an inconsistency in quiz answers approved by them for a biological question on last Monday's show. The Encyclopedia authorities decide in advance what answers will be accepted as correct.

The controversy developed after each contestant was asked to name the five groups of bones in the spinal column.

Snodgrass gave "sacrum" as his first answer and was ruled incorrect. Bloomgarden listed cervical, thoracic, lumbar, sacral and coccyx, and was acclaimed by Jack Barry, master of ceremonies, as winner.

But hundreds of viewers, most of them doctors, telephoned and telegraphed protests.

They said "sacrum" and "coccyx" are both nouns, and that if one were correct, the other was also.

The announced victory for Bloomgarden was worth $73,500 to him on top of $52,500 he had won previously.

Graham's Pitcher Causes Stir

NEW YORK, May 22 (AP)—A squabble over a nightly pitcher of ice water on the lectern at evangelist Billy Graham's crusade was reported settled tonight.

Yielding to union demands, crusade managers have agreed to pay two stagehands a reported $15 per night. All the stagehands have to do is to provide the water pitcher and a glass, a Graham spokesman said.

Slash Made In Operating Funds

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP)—The Senate, after a lot of talk about presidential helicopters, passed today a slashed appropriations bill to operate the White House and top executive agencies.

The bill carries $16,010,370 which is $4,911,500 less than President Eisenhower requested and $11,000 less than the House voted. The measure now goes back to the House.

Coty Sets Mark For Leaders

PARIS, May 22 (AP) — President Rene Coty in effect gave warring French political leaders a 10-day deadline today to settle their differences and choose a new premier to succeed Socialist Guy Mollet.

Mollet turned in his resignation after 16 months in office—a post-war record—when the National Assembly by a 250-213 vote, rejected his belt-tightening program to finance the campaign against nationalist rebellion in Algeria.

Abel Fears Attempt

UNIONTOWN, Pa., May 22 (AP) — I. W. Abel, secretary-treasurer of the United Steelworkers, said today an attempt will be made "within the next year or year and a half to destroy the labor movement."

Stock Market Slips To Lower Level

NEW YORK, May 22 (AP)—The stock market eased downward today as trading volume slipped to its lowest level in more than a month.

There was no particular selling pressure in any group and the decline was uneventful. A number of secondary stocks posted gains.

Reports from steel industry leaders, gathered at the American Iron & Steel Institute meeting, of a pickup in new orders had no apparent effect on shares of the industry. They declined and, with most other stocks, their prices were a shade worse at the close than earlier.

Volume dipped to 2,060,000 shares compared with 2,370,000 yesterday and was the lowest since 1,890,000 shares changed hands on April 16.

Average

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks dropped 50 cents to $184.50 with the industrials down 50 cents, the rails down 30 cents and the utilities down 10 cents.

Of 1,155 issues traded, losses outnumbered gains by 521 to 355. There were 57 new highs for 1957 and 29 new lows.

Of the 15 most active stocks, 8 rose, 6 fell and one was unchanged. Of the 15 favorites, five were oils and another was Northern Pacific which has big oil resources and has been accorded some admiring Wall Street comment lately.

The most active stock was Standard Oil (New Jersey), up ⅛ at 63¼ on 24,300 shares. Second was Northern Pacific, up ⅜ at 46⅞ on 24,000 shares. Third was Bethlehem Steel, off ¼ at 46¾ on 22,600 shares.

Lukens Steel dropped 2 points, General Motors ½, American Cyanamid 1⅛ and United Aircraft ⅜.

On the American Stock Exchange prices were mixed. Volume was 970,000 shares compared with 910,000 yesterday.

Corporate bonds declined in quiet trading.

U. S. Government bonds were irregular in light dealings over the counter.

Interest High In Count For School Board

THERE WAS no "race" in nominations for school director from either party in East Stroudsburg. Two men ran on each ticket with two to be named on each ticket.

All the same present school board members, educators and residents were studying returns yesterday as a "barometer" of "what may happen in the November election" one board member said.

Unofficial returns showed these results:

Democratic ticket—William W. Lee Jr. had 545 votes (by wards, First through Sixth in order: 80-82-100-74-74-135) and Lester G. Abeloff had 361 votes (split 40-56-100-56-47-62).

Republican ticket—Carl Hamill had 424 votes (by wards: 103-81-57-79-45-59) and Robert M. Wright had 345 votes (split; 86-66-57-62-36-38).

Both Hamill and Wright are present members of the school board and of the East Stroudsburg Area Joint Board.

Helping To Keep America Beautiful

Pocono Mountains communities might do well to follow the example set by the City of Pittsburgh in cracking down on "litterbugs."

The one-time "Smoky City," which now prides itself as one of the cleanest cities in the entire country, has put into effect a law making it illegal to throw paper on the streets and sidewalks.

When the rule was first invoked, violators were issued a warning and asked to pick up the paper or other trash and deposit it in a proper container.

Later, however, the city began passing out fines for this infraction and served notice that the small-time "litterbugs" will get the same treatment meted out to major offenders.

This crackdown may seem harsh to most people since the offense is so minor. But it should take only a few arrests to get people to change their old habits. This, after all, is the only way to stop the chronic "litterburg."

A number of readers have commented on the series of recent Daily Record editorials calling attention to the "litterburg" nuisance. By and large, these people have made sincere efforts to keep their own properties looking neat and beautiful, but have run smack against the careless, inconsiderate individual who scatters all kinds of trash along the roadside or on the streets.

Most communities have trash receptacles on their main streets. The state has placed similar containers at public picnic spots. Ice cream stands, roadside restaurants and stores have waste baskets for the convenience of patrons. And trucks make regular pickups of rubbish in the towns. So there is no good reason for marring the beauty of the landscape.

"Keep America Beautiful Inc.," a national public service organization for the prevention of litter, is prevailing upon automobile manufacturers to engineer and install removable travel trash drawers in all new models.

This is a step, but only a step, toward eliminating the "litterbug" menace. The only real progress can be accomplished if and when the public realizes it is the loser when it dumps its rubbish indiscriminately over the beautiful countryside.

We like a voluntary approach to meeting the problem. However, if that fails, stiffer measures should be taken.

Robert S. Allen Reports...

Cancer, Heart Drugs Show Promise

Washington, May 22 — New drugs are producing remarkable results in treating those two great killers — cancer and heart disease.

Thorough testing of these drugs is still in progress, and their capabilities and limitations await final determination. But on the basis of developments so far, they offer high promise of being effective remedies.

In fact, it's even possible that in some instances these drugs may cure completely.

These are the thrilling hopes held out in a comprehensive report on significant achievements in medical research that will be published as an official document by the Senate Appropriations Committee.

Titled "Highlights of Research Progress for 1956," the 200-page survey was compiled by specialists of the famed National Institutes of Health, Betheseda, Md. In addition to cancer and heart disease, a wide range of major maladies is covered in the detailed study.

Foremost among them are arthritis, diabetes, blindness, deafness, high school pressure, epilepsy, cerebral palsy, allergies.

The report is the first of its kind to be published by the Appropriations Committee. This was decided after thousands of requests were received last year for copies of the testimony of National Institutes authorities on what was transpiring in medical research.

Publication was recommended by Senator Lister Hill (D., Ala.), chairman of the subcommittee in charge of the Institutes' budget. Copies can be obtained by writing him or other senators.

What They Have—Notably impressive in the forthcoming study is the categoric statement that definite gains were made last year in the far-flung battle against cancer and heart diseases.

Following is what the report says on that:

"In 1956, important advances were produced along the whole spectrum of the activities that constitute cancer research . . . Similarly, noteworthy progress was made in the heart disease researches."

The survey stresses that "Surgery and radiation remain the two most effective means of treating cancer."

However, a number of new drugs are cited as promising anti-cancer remedies. Several of them undergoing tests for treating leukemia are particularly referred to. Following are the highlights of the "Cancer Research" portion of the study:

"In developing new anti-cancer drugs, Dr. Boland Hughes, of the Wistar Institute of Anatomy and Biology, has found that injection of a derivative or quinoline and quinoline 4-dihydrochloride caused complete remission of blood cancer lymphoma in 11 out of 12 treated rats.

"Dr. R. K. Robins, New Mexico Highlands University, has found a new compound which selectively damages cancers in tissue culture. This compound, known as 4-aminopyrazolo (3,4-d) pyrimidine, destroyed several types of cancer cells, but had no effect on normal cells.

"Dr. George A. Hyman, a National Cancer Institute grantee, has reported the results of treating human blood cancer, chronic granulocytic leukemia, with the anti-tumor drug myleran. Significant remissions for periods up to 48 months were obtained in 14 out of 21 patients, with restoration of the number of white blood cells to normal.

"Dr. R. H. Follis, University of Utah College of Medicine, found that a new compound known as CB-1348 was beneficial in treatment of chronic leukemia in human patients. The drug was found to be effective, well tolerated, and safe for short periods.

"A National Cancer Institute grantee, Dr. R. H. Blocks, State University of Iowa College of Medicine, has reported the effectiveness of radioactive gold-198 in the treatment of selected cases of inoperable prostatic cancer.

"Among the most recently developed weapons against lung cancer, supervoltage (1000 to 4000 kilovolts) therapy stands out. In a research project reported by Dr. Ruth J. Guttman, Columbia University, a group of 100 patients with advanced inoperable lung cancer were irradiated with dosages to tumor from a 2000-kilovolt machine. Sixty-three showed definite benefit from the radiation therapy."

New developments in treating hypertension are especially pointed out in the report, as follows:

"Encouraging evidence from St. Louis study shows that the usually progressive course of arterial hypertension can often be reversed to normal by prolonged treatment with a combination of two pressure-lowering drugs—hydralazine and hexamethonium. This evidence indicates that these drug-induced reversals may be permanent apparently constituting genuine "cures" in some cases. The research was done by Drs. H. Mitchell Perry and Henry A. Schroeder of Washington University School of Medicine and Barnes Hospital.

"Mecamylamine, a drug recently found to lower blood pressure in animals has now been tested on humans and found to have advantage over related drugs currently used to treat hypertension."

In connection with cancer and heart disease, the study also highlights a significant new "pain killer" that is undergoing extensive tests.

It is "hydroxy-phenyl-morphan," which is described as a "purely synthetic substance, more potent than codeine, as potent as morphine, four times as powerful as Demerol, but with less addiction liability than either."

"This noteworthy chemical accomplishment," continues the report, "constitutes another definite breakthrough in the long train of attempts by chemists to separate pain killing power from addiction liability. Compounds 100 times more effective than morphine have been found recently, and are now being tested as new pain killers."

(Tomorrow the second part of this series will report what medical research has accomplished in combatting arthritis, diabetes, blindness, deafness, and other major ailments.)

Now Its Time For Rest, Plans

By Jim Riley

Now that the primary election has passed into history for 1957, we all can return to earth and lead a normal life.

The normal life will probably remain in vogue only until September, when the firing begins for the regular election.

But, right now the winners of the primary are receiving congratulations from all corners, while the losers are searching for one of the same corners in which to lick their wounds.

The winners are planning a Summer rest from political worries and looking to future campaigns early in the Autumn.

It's over for now, but Tuesday's action was only the beginning of firing which will reach its peak in November.

Favors Leisurely Study Of Education Aid

The Pennsylvania House of Representatives has officially taken the same view of Governor Leader's college program that many taxpayers have voiced privately: that it's a nice idea, but . . .

Few deny that a college education today holds almost the same position that finishing high school held not many years ago. Nor that the cost of one college-trained child can be a heavy burden, with the result that many youths who could make good use of higher education are forced to get along without it.

The "but" in all this also cannot be denied. Principally this stumbling block rises from the tremendous struggle the Commonwealth already is undergoing to maintain public education through the first 12 years. The burden has been intensified by a growing population, by higher costs for everything, by recognition of the need to pay teachers decently, and most of all by the now-accepted trend shifting the tax emphasis from local to State levels.

As House Majority Leader Johnson observed as the Leader program was shelved, Pennsylvania had better concentrate on doing a good job on the education task already cut out for it, before expanding.

Probably there is real merit in at least some of Governor Leader's package of proposals for scholarships and other State aid of college students. These can be explored by the Joint State Government Commission, as the House has directed. Such leisurely study is a better appoach than a quick grab at a nice idea that could grow into a taxpayer's nightmare.

Plan Retirement Project Around Work You'll Enjoy

By Anne Heywood

There's an old saying to the effect that all general statements are wrong—including this one. Just the same, I can't resist the temptation to make a general statement, especially when it comes to the subject of retirement and retirement projects.

This for example:

If you have loved your job all of your working life, then when retirement comes you should figure a way to continue it, perhaps on a part-time basis. But if you have hated your job all of your working life, plan a drastic change for your retirement project.

Oldster Can't Change

"But," people will sometimes say, "it's awfully hard for an oldster to change."

Actually, if they have hated their job all those years, the motive is plenty strong. They're apt to bring to the new field such zest, pep and enthusiasm that they succeed very quickly.

That's how it was with Mr. L. R., whose wife wrote me recently.

"My husband is just wonderful," she began. "He is sixty-seven years old, in perfect health and he has a part-time project which is very successful. In fact, he could expand it to full-time if he wanted to, but we'd rather have the time to relax and have fun.

"We're all so happy for him because, for years, he was really miserable.

Became a Salesman

"You see," she went on, "my husband began as a salesman when we were first married. He didn't like it much, but jobs were not too easy to get then so he took it 'for the time being.'

"Well, along came our family and one thing and another, and the years went by. We soon had so many obligations that he couldn't give up the job he knew for one he didn't know.

"He was just wonderful," she continued. "He never complained, and he did reasonably well.

"But I always knew his heart wasn't in it. He is not really an extroverted sales type. Also, his real interest is in mechanical things. He used to putter around after work, repairing things, taking them apart and putting them together again.

Watch Repairing Had Always Fascinated Him

Studied Watch Repairing

"After he retired, he read up on watch repairing which had always fascinated him. Then, practically the day after he finished reading the books, he started his own little watch repair business. He was marvelous at it from the beginning. And why not, as he says. After all, to be able to do a thing he loved took twenty years off his age!"

If watch repairing interests you, send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope, care of this newspaper, and I'll send you a list of good books about it.

George Sokolsky Says...

Education's Problem: Distinguish Between Acquiring Knowledge And Training For Job

It used to be theory that wars killed off people and that the population thus decreased. Since the last war, the population of most of the world seems to have increased until population experts are not only perplexed by the phenomenon but they are somewhat concerned as to whether it will be possible to feed all who xist. Human beings have such varieties of eating habits and such widespread necessities that although some have too much, others have too little.

So far as the United States is concerned, there seems no immediate danger of starvation. Rather, the danger is that Americans will over-stuff themselves so that they get coronaries from too much cholesterol or diabetes or gall-bladder trouble, all of which come from eating too much of the wrong foods.

So, even if we ate half as much or a third as much, we should still be well off and have nothing to complain about. In fact, we should be better off that way, whereas if the Chinese or the Hindus cut their diets, they would starve.

There are other countries where food is not so plentiful and where nevertheless large numbers of children continue to be born. Population pressures have in the past made wars and revolutions because people fought for food.

In the United States where we have compulsory, general education up to the age of 16 or 18, depending on the state, the year 1960, according to the Population Reference Bureau, will receive the first great wave of the new population. In 1954, more than 4,000,000 American children were born and they will be ready for school in 1960.

Succeeding years have done as well as 1954; therefore the school system everywhere in the United Sates is going to have to find more seats, more building space and probably more teachers. In 1968, according to these statistics, these kids will be moving up to high school and again there will have to be more seats, more teachers, more supervision. And cities and towns will be faced by additional expenses.

Standards of education ought to go up under these circumstances because when this enormous army of children reaches college age, the better colleges will be able to pick and choose, rejecting those who cannot make the grade. Of course, some colleges will lower their standards to attract those who cannot get in elsewhere and will build enormous institutions out of fees. A college always has a choice: to put its money into brains or into brick and mortar.

The cost of education is high, both to the parent who sends his child to private institutions and to taxpayers who foot the bill for public institutions. Education involves not only a campus and some faculty members but a college, even a high school, needs inspiring personalities who will win the respect and sometimes love of the students.

The "educated fool" is a familiar character and he exists on every campus and in every institution. He is a man who knows everything but can apply it to nothing. He is really an evil influence because young people despise him and usually do badly in his courses because they despise him.

These days, it is practically essential for any boy to have a college degree to get a job. This reduces the value of the B. A. or the B. S. because these degrees no longer carry great weight. The number of those seeking M.A.'s and Ph.D.'s will constantly increase as more students realize that higher degrees bring better jobs. How much more an M. A. knows than a B.A. is something that time and experience will show in each individual case.

The essential American problem in education for a constantly increasing number of persons is to distinguish between education, which is access to learning, access to the whole of human knowledge, and training for a job which is the development of technical skills.

Presumably the better colleges are trying to do both with what success it is hard to reach a conclusion. Certainly those condensations of knowledge called "Contemporary Civilization" in fat textbooks is nothing to get very excited about once one leaves the Greeks.

Most of the current stuff is slanted and is often sensational. In fact, some of it reminds me of what the stuffed-shirt pedagogues of another day called "Yellow Journalism."

The Once Over

—by H. I. Phillips

Eugene O'Neill, most somber of American dramatists, is getting the musical treatment from Broadway. In a sort of "Long Night's Journey Into Choreography" and "Desire Under the Music Cues," the author, noted for his tragedies, disappears, as it were, into an orchestra pit and comes up in a musical hit. George Abbott is hereby awarded a medal for Courage Beyond the Call of Royalties in performing the miracle of putting Anna Christie among the bassoons, saxophones and violins and he may do more at the box-office with Anna than O'Neill ever did. But this column's dramatic critic, an old O'Neill addict, found it somewhat confusing. In fact he kept talking of Eugene Abbott and George O'Neill as he knocked off the following review:

The Abbottizing of this O'Neill drama is startling and glamorous. I got pretty well mixed up, but, as I see the story now, Anna Christie is a girl who has been abandoned by her father, becomes a fallen woman, but is rescued by a librettist. Chris, her father, is a saloon adict who thinks Anna is out west on a farm. Anna suddenly turns up in a foggy bar and, while she is supposed to be in bad shape, you can see at once that she has not been on any farm, but has come direct from the musical "Damn Yankee."

Chris and his daughter meet in a reunion which has all the pathos the kettledrums can give it. Anna is so despondent she is about to end it all by a double dry martini or other poison, but is saved by a music cue. Then a virile sailor falls or jumps off a boat into the Hudson and comes up with a run-of-the-play contract. It is love at first sight, give or take a few curtain calls.

An old dockside Jezebel, who has been living with Chris, gets jealous and circulates a story that Anna is a lady of the streets and no fit sweetheart for a waterfront Romeo cast for a big part in a hit show. The sailor confronts Anna. This is a dramatic moment. What can they do in such a tragic crisis? Go into a song What else! Nothing comes of it, except audience applause and things look bad until Anna hurls herself into red-light district ballet which makes the hysterical audience think it is in Las Vegas anyhow and proves that the O'Neill theory that waterfront life is dismal, cannot stand up against costly costuming and sensational choreography.

Anna then goes to Staten Island, perhaps fearing the police have seen the dance, but the author brings her back rejuvenated through the long ferry trip. And a tune you can whistle. Her sailor friend is off her but a duet brings a reconciliation. This leads to a grand finale in which the New York waterfront is cleaned up with a cast of 100 and at a cost of half a million, exclusive of revolving scenic effects. Anna is married just as a record demand for seats sets in. The curtain falls with everybody happy, Abbott all set for another fortune, the ticket speculators running a fever and with O'Neill turning over in his grave so rapidly he seems to be on the revolving blades of a helicopter and writing "Strange Interlude" for flutes, bass fiddles and cornets, and batting off a version of "The Hairy Ape" for Ethel Merman.

Gen. Richards Unable To Attend Bypass Committee Meeting

Yetter Posts Letter To A. M. Trogner

CITIZENS BYPASS Committee of Monroe County is going to hold its scheduled public meeting tonight—despite the fact that proponents of the state-recommended Line A will not be present.

Committee chairman Arthur M. Trogner made this clear last night after receiving a telegram from Gen. George J. Richards which disclosed that neither the deputy secretary of highways nor his staff can attend the meeting.

The citizens group called the meeting for 8 p.m. at East Stroudsburg High School in an attempt to air the merits of both the state-proposed alignment and the committee's Plan F.

Route

The state's favored route would carry highway traffic through Stroudsburg and East Stroudsburg on a limited access thruway. The citizens plan would bypass the twin boroughs by carrying traffic through unsettled land to the east and north of the boroughs.

Trogner reported that Gen. Richards informed him by wire that, while he appreciated the citizens committee's invitation to attend tonight's session, it would be impossible for him to attend.

The highway official explained that members of the consulting firm familiar with the bypass have prior commitments "mostly out of state."

"I have an engagement in Philadelphia which I cannot break," Richards' telegram continued. "Those associated with me on the bypass must be at a high level conference in Harrisburg for the evening of May 23rd."

The general's reply made it appear that advocates of Line A were not going to appear at the meeting. Earlier, former Rep. Van D. Yetter, Horace G. Heller, general manager of the Daily Record, and J. L. Kerlin, chairman of the Stroudsburg Businessmen's Assn. traffic and parking committee, all indicated they will not be there.

All three men denied they were "proponents" of Plan A when they turned down the invitation of the citizens group to be present.

Yetter also made public yesterday a letter which he forwarded to the citizens group. The text follows:

"I am at a complete loss to understand what particular advantage would be gained by attending your meeting on Thursday evening and, for that reason, I will not be present.

"I have not at any time advocated the particular location of any bypass or thruway for the Stroudsburgs, believing that the State Highways Department and its engineers would select the route that would best serve the interests of all the people.

Engineers

"I believe that the engineers employed by the department represent the best qualified individuals to decide that question.

"I am satisfied that the engineers considered all feasible routes including the one advocated by your committee and it is my feeling that if you are disgruntled with their conclusions that then you should raise the question with them.

"I am also fearful that if there is a continuation of the biased objections as raised by your committee, that it is quite possible that the entire project might be lost. Could this possibly be your reason for the continuation of your attacks?

Very truly yours,
Van D. Yetter, Jr."

Outstanding Pupils Honored By Exchange

BANGOR—Annual Bangor Exchange Club dinner honoring outstanding school graduates was held last night in Blue Valley Farm Show auditorium with more than 100 persons atending.

Dr. LeRoy Koehler, president of East Stroudsburg State Teachers College, was the guest speaker.

Honor students who were feted included those from Bangor Area Joint High School, Pius X Catholic High School in Roseto, and the eighth grade honor students from Bangor, Roseto, Lower and Upper Mount Bethel townships, East Bangor, Lower Mount Bethel Independent District, Portland, Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Parochial School and Washington Township.

Certificates of merit were presented to the students by Wilson Jackson

Mervine Rolls Up 1,968 Edge Over Judge Davis On Ticket

STROUDSBURG attorney Russell L. Mervine strengthened his hold on the Democratic nomination for 43rd Judicial District judge yesterday as complete unofficial returns from Pike county were announced.

Mervine had a total of 4,181 votes to 2,213 for incumbent President Judge Fred W. Davis who cross-filed seeking the nomination of both parties.

The 43rd district includes both Monroe and Pike. Returns from the latter county showed that Mervine had 664 and Davis 253 on the Democratic ticket. Davis collected 1,451 Republican votes without opposition.

In Monroe County the Democratic race showed up this way: Mervine — 3,517 votes to Davis — 1,960.

The outcome of Tuesday's election set the stage for what will probably be the most interest-evoking race in November's general election.

Judge Davis had concentrated the major portion of his "campaign" prior to the primary on the principle that "sitting judges" should be given bi-partisan support in an effort to take judicial races out of "politics."

Sands Reported Radioactive

NEW DELHI, May 22 (AP)—Two U. S. scientists reported the Monazite sands of Kerala in far south India are radioactive and said the people there should be suffering ill effects from long exposure.

Prime Minister Nehru, disagreeing, told Parliament: "The Kerala people and Monazite sands have been associated with each other for a few thousands years without any apparent deterioration.

PTA Group Criticizes Commissioners

KRESGEVILLE — A special County Parent-Teachers Council committee last night criticized Monroe County Commissioners for failure to resume work on the tax equalization program.

In her prepared report for submission to the Council meeting at Polk High School, Mrs. Elmer Veety charged that "the status of the Monroe County Tax Equalization program seems to be the same as it was" in January.

It was in January that Mrs. Veety's committee held its first meeting to discuss the proposed system. Work on the tax equalization or assessment revision program has been stalled since the last month of 1955.

Present Monroe commissioners recently announced that a "study" of work already completed by two previous engineering firms (John Aicher Associates and J. L. Jacobs Co.) would be necessary.

County solicitor L. A. Achterman said that until they knew how much work had been done, commissioners could not advertise for bids for the program's completion.

Mrs. Veety's report, however, said that "two legal suits" (by Aicher and the Jacobs firm) "can no longer be used as an excuse to delay our county tax equalization program."

"Nothing factual can be obtained concerning just how far along the study of prior tax equalization work is, or for that matter if it actually is started," the committee report continued. "As of this week local tax assessors have not received instructions or information pertinent to a countywide 33 and one-third assessment."

The committee made the following recommendations to the PTA Council:

One — That the Council continue to keep the Tax Equalization Committee it had appointed on an active basis.

Two — That all local branches of the PTA ask their members to exercise their right to know "what is delaying the work on the tax equalization program."

Three — That the County PTA Council make its own recommendations to the committee. These requests would then be carried back to local PTA organizations.

Mrs. Veety's report pointed out that, during its January meeting, the committee had called for formation of a county-wide "action" group to demand that the assessment revision program be resumed and finished without delay.

The committee again strongly emphasized the need for such an organization.

It would be made up of other organizations within the county who wished to join with PTAs in the study and discussion of tax equalization. It would have as its primary aim the completion of assessment revision in Monroe.

Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge Commission Reveals Increase Of Traffic On Two Bridges

THE ANNUAL report of the Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge Commission showed yesterday that traffic on bridges controlled by the Commission rose 1.63 percent from 1955 to 1956.

Executive Director George Feaster's report showed the following:

Total traffic over all bridges in 1956 was 42,638,039 vehicles compared to 41,953,495 in 1955.

Comparison

Traffic over toll - collecting bridges was listed as 15,755,288 vehicles last year compared to 15,575,182 in 1955.

Toll bridge traffic accounted for 36.95 percent of the total number of vehicles using Commission-controlled bridges in 1956.

A breakdown of figures shows these totals for the five individual bridges under Commission jurisdiction:

Trenton-Morrisville total traffic was 4,554,290 vehicles in 1956 compared to 4,590,713 the previous year; a decrease of 36,423 vehicles or a decline of .79 of one percent of the total.

Easton-Phillipsburg total traffic was 7,749,663 compared to 7,514,275 in 1955. This was an increase of 235,388 or 3.13 percent for the year.

Portland-Columbia total traffic was 663,746 in 1956 against 707,212 in 1955 or a decrease of 43,466 or 6.15 percent.

Delaware Water Gap bridge traffic showed an increase of 50,663 or 2.4 percent for the year with 2,161,136 listed for 1956 compared to 2,110,473 in 1955.

Milford-Montague total traffic was 626,453 in 1956 compared to 652,509 in 1955; a decrease of 26,056 or 3.99 percent for the year.

Convinced Of Link

SYDNEY, May 22 (AP)—Dr. C. E. Cook, Australia's health officer, is convinced cigaretts contribute to lung cancer. He has recommended that the government campaign to warn nonsmokers against the habit; urge moderation among inveterate smokers, and reduce cigarette consumption by forbidding smoking in government offices, dance halls, dining rooms and cafes.

Ministerium Approves 15 For Ordination

By Paul Carlson

THE LUTHERAN Ministerium of Pennsylvania today approved for ordination 15 young men, all of whom were assigned parishes.

The action highlighted today's session of the 210th annual convention during which clergymen and laymen were elected to a number of boards.

Those approved to be ministers and their assignments:

Martin A. Acker, Schuylkill Haven, called by the Board of Missions of the United Lutheran Church in America for assignment to King of Prussia parish.

Rudolph H. Bischoff, Philadelphia, assistant pastor at the Advent Lutheran Church, Philadelphia.

Sherwood L. Dieter, Palmerton, pastor of St. Luke's Church, Obelisk.

Peter P. Grimes, Womelsdorf, pastor of Centerport parish.

Walter H. Hitchcock Jr., Philadelphia, assistant pastor at St. Luke's Church, Lansdowne.

William Jensen, Bristol, pastor of Christ Church, Easton.

Charles E. Mertz, Lehighton, pastor of Zion Church, East Pikeland.

Harry P. Unks, Easton, associate pastor, Trinity, Perkasie.

Ernest M. Waxbom Jr., West Chester, pastor of Nuremberg parish.

Boards

Elected to various boards were:

Executive—The Rev. Maynard C. Hallock, Pottsville; C. Allen Thomas, Norristown; W. Gordon Williams, Forty Fort. One clergyman is still to be chosen.

Home Missions—The Rev. George W. Fritch, Scranton; the Rev. William H. Marburger, Orwigsburg; Edwin R. Klein Jr., Allentown; John Rutherford, Flourtown.

Inner Missions—The Rev. Frank E. Radcliffe, Reading; John W. Schmitthener, Tamaqua; William F. Sutter, Nescopek; Mrs. H. Scott Ashton, Bethlehem; Mrs. George Ryon, Jr., Potsville. One clergyman is still to be chosen.

Christian Education—The Rev. Francis R. Edwards, Wilkes-Barre; the Rev. William C. Roegel, Chalfont; Harold Bernhardt, Yeadon; Harold O. Speidel, Pine Grove.

Trustees for Topton Home near Kutztown—Rev. Clarence A. Steigerwalt, Schuylkill Haven; Maurice D. Walborn, Pottsville.

Lutheran Welfare Service of Northeastern Pennsylvania — Mrs. Henry Green, Hazleton; Mrs. Carrie Gassner, Lehighton.

The ministerium also formally received into the synod 18 pastors who have transferred into the area and already have been assigned churches.

A report by the Rev. Luther F. Schlenker of Perkasie, director of the appeal for Muhlenberg College, said $1,415,000 of a $1,500,000 goal already had been pledged. The drive, ending at the end of the year, already has 77 percent of the goal in cash.

In an address, William L. Katz of Hatfield, assistant director of the Muhlenberg Appeal, asserted that it costs the synod $5,200 to educate a man for the ministry, through college and seminary—and that each minister serves on an average of 30 years. Therefore, Katz concluded, the average congregation of 300 members should contribute this amount toward education every 30 years.

The ministerum today formally inducted the Rev. Dr. Francis A. Shearer of Philadelphia as executive secretary of the Board of Inner Missions of the synod. He previously had served in a similar post with the Board of Social Missions. The Board of Inner Missions concerns itself with child welfare, institutional chaplains, and homes for orphans and the aged.

Commission Approves Boost

HARRISBURG, May 22 (AP)—The Public Utility Commission today authorized the South Canaan Telephone Co. of Lake Ariel to raise its public pay telephone charges from 5 to 10 cents beginning June 1.

The company serves the Lackawanna-Wayne County area. It estimated the boost would produce $135 a year.

Mountainhome To Increase Rates

THE PUBLIC Utility Commission today approved a $4,500 annual rate increase proposed by the Mountainhome Water Co., Cresco.

The utility will raise rates to 277 flat rate consumers June 1.

Mission To Leave

BAGHDAD, May 22 (AP)—An Iraqi military mission leaves soon to tour Army bases in the United States as guests of the Defense Department. Maj. Gen. Najeeb Alrubiayi, a division commander, heads the mission.

Baccalaureate Services Among Missing In Many Graduation Programs Through Nation

By HERMAN R. ALLEN

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP)—In a month or so the schools of the nation will be closing out another year, sending new thousands of high school graduates out into the world.

Time was when high school commencement was accompanied almost as a matter of course, by a religious observance called the baccalaureate service.

Today, under their own strict interpretation of a Supreme Court ruling against school-sponsored religious instructions, many communities have abandoned this tradition.

To a leather-cheeked Texas high school principal, recently elected president of the National Assn. of Secondary-School Principals, this is just one more indication of a trend which he deplores.

R. B. Norman of Amarillo, in an interview at the NASSP convention here, called for more religion in the public schools.

"I think it's a moral tragedy, and a sin against youth, that we can't use the Bible itself as a springboard for instruction in moral precepts and examples," he said.

History

"We do teach Bible history and the principles of religion as elective courses," he said. "The Ministerial Alliance furnishes the instructors and the money. We've never had a word of protest despite the Supreme Court."

The Court has made two major rulings in recent years bearing on religious instruction and the public schools.

In a 1948 decision arising from a Champaign, Ill., case, it declared unconstitutional a program of religious instruction in school buildings, approved and supervised by school officials. In 1952 it ruled in a New York case that children might be released from school for religious instruction elsewhere. Between two and three million children in various states now receive such "released-time-instruction."

What are the views of major religious and educational organizations on the question?

A conference on religion and public education sponsored in 1955 by two committees of the National Council of Churches, reported

"1. The American way requires public schools as institutions to be kept separate from the churches as institutions. However, the churches and the schools should cooperate in serving the total educational needs of children and youth.

"2. The public schools have a responsibility to make the largest possible provision in the schools for non-sectarian religious teaching and influence. . .

Schools

"The schools may teach about religion or its values as a fundamental factor in our national life. They may not teach in such a way as to serve the sectarian needs of any ecclesiastical institution individually or collectively."

The NCC represents 25 Protestant and five Eastern Orthodox bodies.

The Educational Policies Commission, a joint agency of the National Education Assn. and one of its departments, the American Assn. of School Administrators, issued a report on "moral and spiritual values in the public schools" in 1951.

It said these values could be promoted in schools by "defining as goals the accepted moral and spiritual values in our society . . . promoting religious tolerance . . . teaching about religion as an important fact in our culture."

And the Committee on Religion and Education of the American Council on Education, again emphasizing the "about," said in 1953:

"We believe we have found the most promising approach to the further study of this problem, namely, factual study of religion when and where intrinsic to general education."

Macmillan Agrees Nasser Suez Boss

LONDON, May 22 (AP) — Prime Minister Macmillan today grudgingly acknowledged Egyptian President Nasser as boss for the moment of the Suez Canal. He told British ships to resume sailing through it on Egypt's terms.

Eight Conservative members of Parliament immediately quit the government party as a protest against what they regarded as a surrender to Nasser. They said appeasement of any kind "leads only to disaster."

Macmillan announced his revised position on Suez in the House of Commons, which was crowded but quiet.

"This is by no means the end of the story," he said. "It is not a settlement, not an agreement. That is why it is unsatisfactory. What we have to face . . . is the actual situation."

Same Time

At the same time Macmillan set out to put British relations with Egypt back on a businesslike basis. He announced slight easements of Britain's financial squeeze on Egypt and disclosed the two countries soon will begin discussing a dollars-and-cents accounting.

Macmillan's statement began the long process of unwinding the diplomatic and financial tangle brought about by Egypt's nationalization of the Suez Canal last July, which culminated in the British-French invasion of the Suez area last fall.

The British-Egyptian talks will open in Rome May 23. Macmillan did not define their scope. Other British officials, however, said crisis

County Club Federation Plans Year

The scholarship to be awarded a Monroe County student wishing to attend Esat Stroudsburg State Teachers College to be awarded this year for the first time by the Monroe County Federation of Women's Clubs was discussed at the executive board meeting held Tuesday night at the home of the county president, Mrs. Claude Leister, at the Wild Animal Farm.

Scholarship

Mrs. John Sibley, East Stroudsburg, who is state Scholarship Chairman of the Pennsylvania Federation of Women's Clubs, with Mrs. Leon Meyung, Barrett, county chairman of education, have conferred with County Superintendent of Schools John S. Litts and Dr. Francis McGarry of the College to set up the scholarship plan. The scholarship will be awarded at graduation time.

Mental Health Programs

A detailed report was given on the steering committee meeting of the new Mental Health Assn., inaugurated at the Spring meeting of the County Federation with Mrs. Arthur Henning as president. Representatives of all the organizations in the county had sent representatives to the steering commitee meeting. Each organization was asked to reserve one program this year for mental health.

The meeting followed a covered dish supper at the Leister home. Informal reports were given of the convention of the Pennsylvania Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. John Sibley was the county delegate. Others who attended the convention and gave reports included Mrs. William Hannas, Mrs. Samuel O. Wells, Mrs. William Howard, Mrs. Robert Bixler and Mrs. William Morgan.

Int. Affairs Projects

Mrs. William Pipher, county finance chairman, requested each club to send her copies of their budgets for the coming year as soon as they had been completed. Mrs. Leister asked for a complete list of the officers and chairmen of each club with their addresses and telephone numbers.

Mrs. Frank Grimm, county chairman of International Affairs, suggested a number of projects in the field. The board voted to postpone a definite decision until Fall.

Mrs. Leister announced that the Northeast District Conference, held last year in Stroudsburg, would be held at the County Club in Dallas on Sept. 20.

Clearview, Arlington Heights PTAs Install New Officers

President, Mrs. Elwood German; vice president, Thomas Manley; secretary, Mrs. Norman Dennis, and treasurer, Mrs. Walter Weber.

Also installed from Arlington Heights PTA were: President, Edwin Buck; vice president, John Pyle; secretary, Mrs. George Keenhold, and treasurer, Walter McClelland.

Mrs. J. W. Regan, school librarian, presented a review of the children's books in the library, following a film on "Reading Problems." Mrs. Regan emphasized the necessity of parents providing reading stimuli over the summer months.

A report encouraging the writing to congressman concerning new school construction was received by Herbert Ayres. He further reported that the House has recently passed a bill providing for imprisonment in lieu of non-payment of fines for passing stopped school buses.

Junior Colleges

Mrs. Lester Katz reported on the last school board meeting and northeast District PTA Conference. She also reported on an educational luncheon which she had with Governor Leader at the Governor's Mansion in Harrisburg. At this meeting discussion was held concerning the establishing of Junior Colleges throughout Pennsylvania. At the present time only one out of three students applying for college entrances are accepted due to the over-crowded conditions.

Neighborhood Teams

Mrs. Robert Baird expressed the need for children's baseball teams. She stated that only a limited number are accepted for the Little League, and that neighborhood teams might be the answer to these additional children who desire to play baseball. Anyone interested in placing their children on a neighborhood team are urged to call 2842.

For the outstanding work done by Russell Pritchard while acting as Clearview PTA President for the past two years, the members praised his accomplishments and presented him with a Past President's pin.

Refreshments were served by the faculty during a social period.

Honors Sister

Mrs. Allen Heimbach served a turkey dinner on Sunday in honor of the birthday of her sister, Mrs. Art Bond. Present were William Veranka, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dyson and children, Jan and Robert, of Wind Gap, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bond and children, Shirley and Kenny, Mrs. Ella Dyson, and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Heimbach.

June Memorial Service

Newfoundland—Memorial services for departed members of the Ladies of Paupack Rebekah Lodge will be held on June 6, according to Agnes Waltz, noble grand, who presided this week at the semi-monthly business meeting of the active unit held in the lodge hall.

Rebekah flags will be placed on graves before Memorial Day, it was noted.

Bible School Has Banquet In Shawnee

The faculty present were the Bible School President Rev. Jansen E. Hartman, Mrs. Ruth A. Hartman, Rev. Norman B. Jerome, and Doris C. Schaeffer. The seniors present were Leon K. Overpeck, class president, Lonny L. Thomas, vice president, Vernon J. Howerter, sec.-treas., Leonard E. Buck, Donna I. Daugherty, Richard J. Gehman. 'Louise V. Miller, Harry T. Mills Jr., Donald E. Nilsson, and Richard R. Ruth.

The Middlers present were Ellen Pitchford, president, LeRoy Wilcox, vice pres., Lilas Butler, sec., Naida Sue Copenhaver, treas., Martha Heliger, Shirley Kline, Janet Lohman and Richard Whitner.

The table decorations were miniature graduation caps and diplomas rolled and tied with ribbon. The dinner and program was sponsored for the seniors by the Middler class of 1958. An evening of fellowship was enjoyed by all and the program theme "Memories" with various skits was presented to the Seniors by members of the Middler class. The pine-paneled log lodge with its big stone fireplace was the perfect atmosphere for the event. As the evening drew to a close the most precious memories of all were the unspoken ones deep in the minds of all present, of the times spent together in the study of the Word of God in preparation of life service to Him.

Just Between Us

—By Bobby Westbrook

Let's face it. Some of us are just not geared for gracious living. Oh, we try—but somehow it doesn't quite come off. The molded salad that was to be the piece de resistance comes out lopsided and soft around the edges; the candles burn unevenly and drip wax like mad.

That's when we try to be gracious for the sake of other people. But when we can't even live graciously for our own benefit, we might as well admit defeat. For instance: last Saturday, for once, there were no parties, no weddings, no company, no nothing on my schedule, except, of course, housework.

Seeking to postpone that inevitable chore, I started leafing through accumulated magazines. "Women living alone become careless in their house-keeping and in their appearance, and tend to become as dreary as their surroundings", said one article.

Very true, I agreed, looking around at the snips of sewing and the swirls of dust in the room and my faded dungarees and run-over shoes.

"Treat yourself like company," the advice continued, "Live graciously".

"All right," I agreed, meekly. So I put aside my plans for grubbing around in the attic, and instead picked lilacs for every available vase. I spent a whole half hour putting on unaccustomed nail polish, somewhat sloppily but glamorous enough by the dim light in which I drank my tea—from the best china, of course, and with a linen napkin, if you please.

Well, maybe there is something to the advice. At least, I didn't feel any drearier—not right then, anyway. But I didn't feel very gravious, either—just sort of lonely in lilac-scented way.

When I felt dreary was yesterday when in the first pause in the hectic days which followed that "gracious-living" Saturday, I had time to look around: dead lilacs everywhere, scattering shriveled petals and brown leaves over everything; a crumpled tea napkin right next to the unopened Sunday papers; and my hands looking leprous with the chipped, and peeling nail polish I hadn't had time to remove or repair.

Living graciously, indeed! I guess maybe from here on I'd better concentrate on living, period.

L. C. Nauman Married In Hope Church

Mrs. Abbie Lou Raine Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Kitchen of Columbia, N.J., was married on Friday, May 17, to Lamont Clair Nauman, son of Mrs. Lorretta Nauman and the late Clair Nauman of Swiftwater, Pa.

Rev. Charles L. Manker of Hope, N.J., performed the ceremony in the Hope Methodist Church. Mrs. Leon Kitchen, Jr., of Hope, N.J., sister-in-law of the bride was matron of honor. Leon Kitchen Jr., brother of the bride acted as best man.

After a reception at Fireside Inn, Blairstown, Mr. and Mrs. Nauman left for a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and Canada.

Mrs. Nauman attended Belvidere High School. She is employed with the Atlantic and Pacific Tea Co., Bangor. Mr. Nauman served in the US Navy during World War II and is employed by Eugene Kelly, Delaware, N. J.

THE Wyckoff SHOPPER

Word around the store has it that Gracie and Stanley Grace are naming their new little daughter Michele. Gracie, you doubtless remember, is the former secretary to our general manager, J. L. Kerlin. When she left us some weeks ago, she was succeeded by Edna Bloch who, right this minute, is stenciling my words to a song about Playtex girdles which we will sing this morning when our Playtex promotion begins. Oh, we always have plenty to sing about at Wyckoff's! Every promotion has its own special song.

When Betty Colvin first approached me about a Playtex song, I had a wonderful time experimenting with lyrics, most of which, I'm afraid, were not exactly what our corsetiere had in mind. One phrase in particular appealed to me, and I sang it over and over to Betty's dismay: "her figure was lithe, and she always looked nithe, with her Playtex on."

"That's terrible," Betty mourned. "Just awful! You'll have to do better than that. So, I wrote another song . . . but I still think the first lyrics were better. The trouble is, Betty's too fussy. After all, she can't expect any song to tell the entire PLAYTEX story . . . Playtex works its own magic in its own way, and every woman who wears one writes her own lyrics to the inspiring music of appreciative whistles!

∴ ∴ ∴

AROUND AND ABOUT WYCKOFF'S: Learned a new word today from our manager—"serendipity." It means "an apparent aptitude for making fortunate discoveries accidentally." If you have that aptitude, by all means make use of it at Wyckoff's. There's so much here to discover, both accidentally and with premeditation—and all of it so unusual . . . Our domestics department is a regular Hope Chest filled with surprises these days, so I had a wonderful time treasure hunting the other morning. Particularly attractive are the many accessories for outdoor cooking and serving. There are Bar-B-Q aprons for the host, asking the plaintive question "Must I Be Well Done Too?"—there are barbecue mitts, heavily insulated and quilted, with a palm of asbestos, there are 5 pc magnetized sets for use in or out of doors, composed of two oven mitts, two pot holders, and a pot or pan handle. And then, for food protection from ants, flies, and the like, there are net umbrellas that set squarely over a dish of salad, spaghetti, or such. These are decorated with plump velvet bees, or bright butterflies, and add a certain note of festivity to your patio dining and picnics. Umbrella, apron, and asbestos-palmed mitt are priced at 1.49 each; the 5-pc set is 1.98; individual mitts are 49c, and pot holders, 29c . . . If that word "magnetized" baffled you, we simply mean there are tiny magnets in the handles of these accessories, and you can hang them at a moment's notice from grill, refrigerator, stove or any other metal surface. They're magnetically eye-catching too, in yellow, pink, blue, black or red print . . . Also in our domestics department are some most attractive place mats, among the most unusual being those of white cloth strips, woven in braided effect, with gayly colored Pennsylvania Dutch designs. These are only 1.00, and would be perfect in my little dining room and probably in yours . . . If you plan long, lazy afternoons on the beach, you'll want to know about some of the biggest, thirstiest, prettiest beach towels we've ever stocked. Absolutely the towel to end all towels glamour wise is a white terry, edged in natural color string fringe, that glows with lobsters in their ruddy broiled state. It's 3.98, and as bright as tomorrow's sunshine. Cannon has a 2.98 towel which is awfully cute too, but not nearly so glamorous. It has an over-all pattern of trained seals balancing balls on their heads. The seal has my seal of approval, naturally—but that lobster has its claws on my budget, and I'd better watch out! . . . Nylon "Bean Bag Boxers" are the big swim suits news from Doug Gordon's department. As a matter of fact, Doug had a wonderful—and perplexing—time the other afternoon showing us how the suit slides into its own pocket, and buttons, so that it actually forms its own carrying case. We all had a try at it—and it works, but it does take a bit of practice. The suits come in red or black, are nylon mesh lined, and, in sizes 8 to 12, are priced at 3.50. Sizes 14 to 20 are 3.98. If you've time on your hands, come in and see how the Bean Bag suit works!

Stroudsburg Scores Five Runs In Sixth To Top Pocono

Mountaineers Blast Deficit Of Four Runs

STROUDSBURG High School came from behind a 4-0 deficit to score five times in the bottom of the sixth inning to edge Pocono High 5-4. The game was played last night at Gordon Giffels field.

Pocono, champions of the Monroe County High School League, jumped off to a four-run lead in the top of the fourth inning after three frames of scoreless ball. Taking advantage of two walks and a pair of errors — coupled with erratic infield play on two bunt singles — the Blue and White made only one solid single stand up for the quartet.

Paul Frailey, the Pocono squads' top pitcher, almost made the lead stand up. Frailey, who had pitched his team to the league title only Tuesday, was called in when the Stroudsburg nine had two men on base with walks and none out in the third. He retired the next three men via strikeout route, and settled down to dazzle the Mountaineer hitters with his soft-curve for the next two innings, fanning a total of eight men in four innings.

However, he walked the first man to face him in the fatal sixth, Barry Tretheway. A passed ball advanced him to second, whence he scored as shortstop Burdette Peechatka overthrew first on a routine grounder by Ronnie Stopp. Charley Cramsey singled up the middle, and a momentary bobble by the centerfielder allowed Ronnie Stopp to count for the second run. A walk to Ronnie "Super" Phillips set the stage for Bob Pugh's solid double into left-center field, which knotted the score at 4-apiece. John Mirenda, pinchhitting, untied it quickly with another single.

Stroudsburg suffered a sharp fielding lapse in the fourth inning. A walk, an error and a bunt which went for a single when second-sacker Johnny Schoonover was late in covering first-base loaded the bags. The squeeze scored one, and an error by Charley Cramsey allowed the second to tally. Marty Zeek laced a sharp single through short for another; the second bunt single and a walk accounted for the fourth and final run which Pocono was destined to score.

Frank "Buddy" Radler started the game for the Mountaineers, and pitched well for six innings until he was lifted for a pinch-hitter. Jim Snyder pitched the final inning, walking the first but atoning for it with a sparking catch of a bunt attempt, throwing to first to double the runner and end the game.

Three Records Fall In Annual Field Day Events

THE ANNUAL Monroe County Field Day, in which 196 youths of high school age competed, was held at East Stroudsburg State Teachers College yesterday.

The track-and-field meet saw representatives of four high schools — Pocono, Tobyhanna, Polk, and Chestnuthill — compete in a variety of events. The contestants were divided into three groups — Junior, Intermediate, and Senior — on the basis of age, weight, and height.

One of the major purposes of this event was to indoctrinate both the contestants and the student-teachers who ran the meet with the importance and value of physical education and fitness.

No Team Scores

It was an individual tournament, and no team scores were kept.

Three records fell and another was equalled in the Junior Division. There were no new marks in either the Intermediate or Senior categories.

Charles Bruch of Polk High shattered the old shot-put mark by close to three feet, tossing the lead ball 29 feet, two inches. The old record was 26-6. James Franks, Tobyhanna, threw a baseball 233 feet, eclipsing the former mark by six feet. The Pocono oval-relay team trotted the 240-yard distance in 0:36.1, clipping a second off of the previous low. Sam Tucker, a Pocono High youth, equalled the 60-yard dash time of 8.2.

Summary follows:

Summary of Senior Events

100 yard dash — Vishnesky, Pocono, 1st; Serfass, Chestnuthill, 2nd; Nijuland, Pocono, 3rd. Time, 11.2 seconds.

Tighe Echoes Lopez Confidence

BALTIMORE, May 22 (AP)—Jack Tighe, rookie manager of the Detroit Tigers, echoed the confident feeling today of Chicago's Al Lopez that the New York Yankees "can be taken" this season.

"They have some fellows who are getting a little old, and Casey Stengel tells me a couple are getting too content," Tighe said today. "That's something new on the Yankees—contentment."

Eagles Sign New Fullback

PHILADELPHIA, May 22 (AP)—The Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League today announced the signing of Ohio State fullback Hubert Bobo for the 1957 season. Bobo, a 6-1 205-pounder, played only one season for Ohio State, in 1954. He was out of school in 1955, and missed last season due to a training injury. He is 22 and a resident of Chauncey, Ohio.

California To Skip Regatta

BERKELEY, Calif., May 22 (AP)—The University of California said today it will skip the intercollegiate rowing regatta at Syracuse, N. Y.

Greg Engelhart, Bear athletic director, said the California crews this year are not good enough.

Dodgers Sign Kennedy

CINCINNATI, May 22 (AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers signed Bob Kennedy, veteran American Leaguer, for pinch hitting purposes today and sent Cuban pitcher Rene Valdes to Montreal on option.

Lane Stops Brown In Sixth Round Of Lightweight Bout

DETROIT, May 22 (AP) — Kenny Lane of Muskegon, Mich., tonight knocked out Philadelphia's Henry "Toothpick" Brown in the sixth round of their scheduled 10-round lightweight bout. Lane, the No. 1 contender, held the upper hand all the way and finished the job with a long right hand to Brown's jaw.

Lane weighed 139½, Brown 137.

The stubby Lane staggered Brown in mid-ring early in the round and never let up. Brown, who had been idle since breaking his right hand last November, first tried to fight back and then held on as Lane continued the bombardment with both hands.

End

The end came at 1:14 of the sixth.

It was the 46th victory in 51 starts for Lane and strengthened his bid for a crack at the winner of the title bout next month between champion Joe Brown and Orlando Zulueta.

Brown, going down to his fifth defeat in 31 bouts, never was able to solve Lane's southpaw style in the nationally televised and broadcast bout.

For the 25-year-old Lane, it was only the eighth time he has stopped an opponent and tonight's explosive victory was his 13th in succession.

Lane, scoring his third straight kayo, concentrated on Brown's body in the early going. Only in the second round was the Philadelphia boxer able to land any telling blows.

Besecker's Club Trips Twin City

THE TWIN CITY TV nine scored once in the top of the first inning, but the lead held up only through the first four hitters on the Besecker Diner squad when Bob Schick drove in two runs.

The Besecker squad went on to post a 6-1 win in the Monroe County Softball League, held last night at Stroudsburg Playground.

Five of the six tallies came in the bottom of the first. Evans followed Schick with a base hit, then Russ Bergman knocked them in. Bergman came around to score the fifth run.

Schick's fine fielding, in addition to his key hitting, coupled with sterling four-hit pitching by Chet Lucki to keep the TVers in check for the remaining six innings.

Tonight's schedule sees the Besecker's club again in action, facing the 579th Signal Corps nine, also at the Stroudsburg Playground.

Two Sites For Stadium

NEW YORK, May 22 (AP)—A special committee appointed by Mayor Wagner to work with the Brooklyn Sports Center Authority announced today that only two sites for a possible stadium for the Brooklyn Dodgers are under consideration.

Five sites have been suggested by various city officials. But the committee said only a site immediately north of the intersection of Atlantic and Flatbush avenues in Brooklyn and another almost directly opposite it on Atlantic avenue are being considered.

Announcement

The committee announcement stated that both the committee and the sports authority have been given to understand either would be acceptable to the Dodgers.

Arthur E. "Red" Patterson, assistant to the general manager of the Dodgers, said, "O'Malley (president Walter O'Malley recently discussed this development with Mayor Wagner and Sports Center Authority Chairman Charles Mylord and that further meetings are planned."

The next step will be a specific plan by the Sports Center Authority for transmission to the Board of Estimate for submission to the Dodgers.

Line Material Wins Over Ronson, 12-11

LINE MATERIAL scored 10 runs in the bottom of the first and added two more in the fourth to outlast Ronson's scattered 11-run total in an Industrial Softball League Encounter last night.

The L. M. nine finished on the long end of a 12-11 count.

Going into the top of the fifth, L. M. lead 12-4, but Ronson tallied six in the fifth and one more in the sixth to bring the score up to its 12-11 finale.

Ronson, however, was able to get nothing rolling against Bud Williams in the seventh and last inning. "Lakey" Heller suffered the loss for Ronson.

Furgol Leads Over Palmer

KANSAS CITY, May 22 (AP)—Former U. S. Open champion Ed Furgol today backed up his claim that he's playing the best golf of his long career by clipping six strokes off par in a practice round for the Kansas City Open.

Furgol, tanned and trim after a short vacation at his Florida home, played the Hillcrest Country Club's rain-softened, 6668-yard course in 32-34-66. Par is 36-36-72.

Four Days

The $22,000 Kansas City Open begins a four-day run at Hillcrest tomorrow, and Furgol's brilliant round today placed him among the favorites.

Two other contenders, defending champion Bo Wininger and Arnold Palmer, posted sub-par rounds for the front nine at Hillcrest today. Wininger had a 2-under-par 34 and Palmer shot a 33.

Tanner Turns Tide

MILWAUKEE, May 22 (AP)—Chuck Tanner drilled his first home run of the season, a long drive over the right-field fence in the 13th inning tonight to give the Milwaukee Braves a 4-3 victory over Philadelphia Phillies and Robin Roberts who had gone all the way.

Orioles Down Tigers

BALTIMORE, May 22 (AP) — Al Pilarcik's one-out single through first baseman Ray Boone's legs gave the Baltimore Orioles a 4-3 10th inning victory over the Detroit Tigers here tonight.

Number Of Top Keglers To Display Ability In Tourney

THIS weekend brings another crew of first-rate bowlers up to the Poconos in an attempt to slice themselves a big hunk of the $48,000 which has been offered by the Pocono Slate Belt Bowling Tournament Assn.

Last weekend saw the Budweiser crew sweep through, leaving much of the scratch tournament in shambles. Another crew of brewer representatives roll in, the Pfeiffer Brewery squad out of Detroit and the Meister Brau rollers from Chicago. Both outfits will bowl this Saturday.

Easton Fleas

Tomorrow night witnesses the Easton Flea's attempt at the ten-pins. On Saturday, several high competent bowlers, such as Joe Ritchie of Rochester and Tom Sangan, assault the Budweiser tallies.

Sunday's action includes Veto Calolo and his entourage from Syracuse, and Patsy Comandy, Toffy Zabady, and John Dreibe, of Scranton.

Chisox Slam Yankees For Ninth Straight

NEW YORK, May 22 (AP)—The league-leading Chicago White Sox sped to their ninth straight victory today, 8-4, with the help of three New York Yankee errors, including a dropped fly by Mickey Mantle.

Chicago ripped into Yankee pitching for 11 hits, including Nellie Fox's second homer of the season.

Billy Martin, restored to the line-up after a period on the injured list, misplayed two ground balls at second and Mantle failed to catch a fly and ran into Elston Howard on another fly that fell for a double.

A tight battle between 35-year-old Jim Wilson and young Johnny Kucks was broken wide open in the sixth when Chicago scored five runs on four hits and two errors. All five runs were unearned.

Streaks Broken

Two scoreless streaks were broken early in the game. Kucks, who had pitched 18 consecutive scoreless innings against Chicago over a two-year span, yielded a run in the third. Luis Aparicio singled, stole second and scored on Fox's single off Joe Collins glove.

The Yanks broke through Wilson's string of 21 1-3 shutout innings with three in the fourth. Successive singles by Billy Martin, Collins and Mickey Mantle accounted for the first run. Yogi Berra's sacrifice fly drove in Collins and Mantle came home on Howard's single after Gil McDougald was walked intentionally.

Chicago got back one run in the fifth when Mantle collided with Howard and Minnie Minoso's fly fell for a double. Aparicio, who had only one hit in his last 29 at bats before today, had opened the inning with a single and taken second on an infield out.

The Yankee defense collapsed in the sixth when Mantle dropped Fox's long fly as he ran back toward deep center, letting two runs score. Martin's fumble of Aparicio's roller already had given the Sox one run. Nine men went to bat in the inning as Chicago touched up Kucks, Art Ditmar and Tommy Byrne.

Red Sox Equal Record For Circuit Blows In One Inning While Rolling Over Indians, 11-0

BOSTON, May 22 (AP)—Boston cracked out a record-tying four home runs in an inning including Ted Williams' 10th today as the revived Red Sox battered Cleveland 11-0. Right hander Tom Brewer checked the Indians on four hits for his sixth triumph.

Gene Mauch, Williams, Dick Gernert and Frank Malzone connected for the homers in the sixth inning off Cal McLish to equal an American League mark the Sox set in 1940.

Share

Williams was a party to that barrage in Philadelphia, too, on Sept. 24. He was followed by Jimmy Foxx, Joe Cronin and Jim Tabor.

Detroit's Dizzy Trout, Gerry Priddy, Vic Wertz and Hoot Evers duplicated the feat in 1950. Wertz currently is with Cleveland.

The major league standard for an inning is five held jointly by the New York Giants (1939) and Philadelphia Phillies (1949).

Giants Score In Ninth To Decision Cubs

CHICAGO, May 22 (AP)—The New York Giants rewarded Alan Worthington's stout relief pitching today with a ninth-inning run that beat the Chicago Cubs, 4-3, and gained a split of their two game series.

The Giants' winning run came after Daryl Spencer led off the ninth inning with a double off Bob Rush.

Early Runs

The Cubs scored twice in the first on sacrifice flies by Dale Long and Jim Bolger. The Giants scored an unearned run in the second, and went ahead with two runs in the third when Willie Mays opened with a triple to run his hitting streak to 11 straight games and a .408 average during the span.

Before Rush was able to pitch out of this jam Gail Harris' infield out got Mays across and Don Mueller doubled and scored the lead run on Ray Jablonski's single.

Long's fifth homer reached the vacant center field seats, sailing over the 400-foot sign, for the tying run to open the Cubs' sixth.

Sees Farm System Hurting Baseball

NEW ORLEANS, May 22 (AP) — Vince Rizzo, general manager of the New Orleans Pelicans, said today the farm system eventually would kill baseball and at the same time predicted his Southern Assn. team would be out of business by June 1 unless a miracle occurs.

Rizzo said in an interview he realizes now that the New Orleans team cannot continue.

Kansas City Wins Battle Of Home Runs

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP)—Gus Zernial crashed two homers to provide most of the power as Kansas City belted Washington, 8-6, in a batting jamboree today in topcoat weather at Griffith Stadium.

Zernial drove in three runs with his blasts, two in the opening inning, to send the A's winging to their first triumph in four games.

Vic Power of the A's, Jim Lemon and Roy Sievers of the Senators also hit home runs.

Redbirds Alston Is Hospitalized

ST. LOUIS, May 22 (AP)—Tom Alston, reserve first baseman and first Negro ever to wear a St. Louis Cardinal uniform, was in Jewish Hospital today for tests to determine why he has lost 15 pounds since spring training.

The club moved immediately to put him on the disabled list, which would permit them to bring up another player, but Commissioner Ford Frick awaited a physician's report before acting on the request.

Keenan Retains Crowns

GLASGOW, Scotland, May 22 (AP)—Peter Keenan of Scotland retained his British and Empire and bantamweight crowns tonight when he stopped 23-year-old John Smillie, also of Scotland, in the sixth round. Each weighed 115 pounds.

Helfand Fears Death Blow For Boxing

NEW YORK, May 22 (AP) — The chairman of the New York State Athletic Commission said today he felt boxing would be killed if the government forced Madison Square Garden to end its Friday night televised bouts.

Julius Helfand made his statement while testifying before Sylvester J. Ryan in the government's monopoly suit against the International Boxing Club and its subsidiaries.

Helfand, under questioning by defense attorney Kenneth Royall, said he believed sponsors would withdraw their support if the Garden were not permitted to include title fights among the weekly shows.

He said the televised fights have attracted "the attention of millions of people in the United States and this has had the effect of creating an interest in boxing which wouldn't exist without television."

Ruling

Judge Ryan recently found the IBC, Madison Square Garden Corp., and their officers guilty of attempting to monopolize championship boxing bouts in violation of antitrust laws. He is currently hearing decrees to fix steps the IBC must take to meet government demands.

The government is seeking dissolution of the sprawling IBC organization, demanding that Jim Norris and Arthur M. Wirtz be ordered to sell within six months all their stock in the Madison Square Garden Corp., and resign as directors. The government also asks that the Garden be restrained from promoting title fights.

Norris is president of the IBC in New York. Wirtz is president of the IBC in Chicago. Both have been asked also to dissolve the IBC in Michigan and Missouri.

The IBC, in its brief, has agreed to limit itself to two championship fights a year.

Smaller Nations Of World Question Future Of Olympics Under Conditions Now In Vogue

NEW YORK, May 22 (AP)—Many of the smaller nations of the world fear the titanic athletic struggle between the United States and and Russia—if not arrested—may ultimately kill the Olympic Games the president of the International Olympic Committee said today.

Avery Brundage of Chicago said this probably will be among the problems discussed at a six-day series of Olympic conferences at Evian, France, beginning June 3.

"Understand, I don't share such fears because I feel we can take whatever measures are necessary before the situation gets out of hand," he added. "But we do know there is deep concern among the smaller and less wealthy countries.

"We have heard the opinion expressed in France, Switzerland even Great Britain, that it appears useless to try to compete against the United States and Russia who throw such powerful resources behind their teams.

Opinion

"Many of the countries regard both the United States and Russia as professional and feel that they are at a disadvantage with purely amateur squads."

Brundage said in these quarters the Yanks, with their athletic scholarships and subsidies, are regarded as no purer than the Russians, whose teams are openly supported by the state.

The meetings at Evian among Olympic committees and the various international federations will be largely exploratory to make recommendations for the full session of the IOC, scheduled at Sofia, Bulgaria, in September. Few radical changes are likely at either session.

Dealing

"Remember we are dealing with some 80 nations and 20 different sports groups," Brundage said. "Changes come hard and slow."

Brundage said he doubted the controversial Olympic oath — the promise of each competitor that "I am and intend to remain an amateur"—will be reinvoked. It was waived before the Melbourne Olympics because, Brundage insisted, it was "grossly misunderstood."

Civil Rights To Be Delayed

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP)—Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn), an outspoken supporter of civil rights legislation, said tonight Congress is not likely to enact it before this year's adjournment.

This morning the legislation made its first progress in the Senate Judiciary Committee in two months, but it remained highly uncertain when it might make more.

The committee rejected on a 6-4 vote a Southern proposal to knock out key parts of the bill the administration, with some Democratic support, has been urging on Congress.

Humphrey gave his estimate during a radio interview (Mutual-Reporters Roundup). He was asked "who is responsible for the delay and reluctance of the Democratic-controlled Congress to act on civil rights?"

Humphrey said it was a "bipartisan sin," and went on to predict that before this Congress "completes its work—though not necessarily this year," it will make "a substantial advance in the civil rights field."

Memorial Day Historical Facts Revealed To Kiwanians

THE HISTORICAL background of Memorial Day was detailed for members of the Stroudsburg Kiwanis Club yesterday by Dr. John C. Appel, head of the social studies Kiwanis Club yesterday by Dr. John C. Teachers College.

The holiday is generally recognized as having originated in 1865 in the South, where women gathered to scatter flowers on the graves of soldiers and sailors killed in the War Between the States.

The idea spread to the North and in 1868, Gen. John Logan—who was commander of the Grand Army of the Republic—ordered that the graves of dead comrades be decorated on a day of remembrance. He chose May 30 since that was a day when flowers were available in all parts of the country.

Sectionalism which flared in the next several decades prevented the observance to be held nationally, the speaker said. This disunity reached its climax in the years following 1881 when the GAR tried to exclude everything in the Memorial Day observance but reverent tributes to the fallen Union veterans.

In the 1900s, Dr. Appel, said, both North and South were brought closer together because of the Spanish-American War and World War One, and much of the sense of conflict was lost.

As the GAR declined in number, the American Legion took over the celebration and Memorial Day is now held to honor veterans of all wars—living as well as dead. It is for men and women the world over, the speaker said.

Dr. Appel was introduced by Clement Price, program chairman. Elwood Hintze, president, conducted the meeting.

Dr. C. W. Dupee formally inducted Richard Welteroth and Walter Marshall into membership. Robert Schell led group singing.

Roy Lloyd Wins Democratic Nod

ROY F. LLOYD won Democratic nomination for Councilman from East Stroudsburg Sixth Ward in the primary.

Unofficial returns gave Lloyd 100 votes to 85 for his opponent Foster L. Miller. On the Republican ticket William H. Schnaitman was unopposed and got 57 votes.

Dr. William T. Toewe

Dr. Toewe Officially Named Governor Of Rotary District At International Convention

(Special To Daily Record)

LUCERNE, Switzerland—William R. Toewe, an optometrist in East Stroudsburg, was elected Governor of District 741 of Rotary International, world-wide service club organization, at Rotary's 48th annual convention, which is concluding its sessions here today. He will take office July 1 and serve for the 1957-58 fiscal year.

As District Governor, he will coordinate the activities of the 37 Rotary clubs in District 741, one of nine Rotary Districts in Pennsylvania. During the year, he will visit each club to offer advice and assistance on Rotary service activities and administration.

In East Stroudsburg, Dr. Toewe has been president of the Board of Trustees of State Teachers College, vice president of Community Chest, and a director of the Crippled Children's Assn. and the polio organization. He has been a member of Rotary Club of Stroudsburg since 1929 and is secretary and a past president of the club.

A continually growing organization, Rotary International now encompasses 99 countries throughout the free world. The 442,000 business and professional executives who are members of more than 9,300 Rotary clubs work together to advance the Rotary program of community-betterment activities, high standards in business and professional life, and the furtherance of international understanding, good will and peace.

To promote international understanding, Rotary International is now engaged in a world-wide program of Rotary Foundation Fellowships, which provides grants for one year of study abroad, as ambassadors of good will, to outstanding college graduates. In the past 11 years, Rotary Fellowships have been awarded to 954 young men and women from 61 countries for study in 42 countries. Grants average $2,500 and total more than $2,250,000.

State Soil Official Speaks To Lions

A. NORMAN Detrick, a member of the state soil conservation service, was the principal speaker at the Lions Club dinner-meeting Tuesday night. The meeting, which was the finale of the current fiscal year, was held at the Penn-Stroud Hotel's ballroom.

In addition to his speech—where he stressed the enormous wastage of top-soil in the United States—Detrick showed films which emphasized the need for soil conservation. He was introduced by Jacob Kintz, who is, himself, a member of the forestry service.

Next Week

Sy Katz, former president, reported on attending the necrology services which begin on Sunday. He also announced that Woodrow Miller, Andres, is the new district governor.

The club's president, Harold Miller, announced that the next regular meeting will be held next Tuesday at the hotel of Lion member Alex Daviduke, in Middle Smithfield Township. Installation of the new officers will be effected at this meeting.

Evangelist To Launch Sermon Series

Larry McGuill

LARRY McGUILL, evangelist from Wyckoff, N. J., will be conducting a series of meetings at Berean Church, 23 S. Sixth St., Stroudsburg, from May 23-25.

McGuill, a native of New Jersey, schooled at the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, and Wheaton College, Wheaton, Ill., has wide experience in the gospel ministry. After having led singing in campaigns throughout the country, he returned to his home town of Ridgewood, N. J., and began a new church, which he pastored for several years.

Invited by General Douglas MacArthur to help in evangelizing Japan during the occupation, McGuill joined forces with the Pocket Testament League for this task.

Services begin at 7:30 p.m. and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Clubs To Hold Outing

THE MOUNT POCONO YMCA Clubs, boys and girls Gra-Y clubs, Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y Clubs are holding their last meeting for the season on Friday.

It will be a joint get-together with all the parents and youngsters of all the clubs.

Cars will leave the Mount Pocono Fire Hall at 5:30 p.m. to travel to Tobyhanna Park for the clubs picnic. Contests and games will be supervised by Fred Shaffer, Mrs. Betty Lusica, and Daniel Wilson.

Everyone is invited to come along and bring their own picnic lunch. If the weather is unfavorable, the meeting will be held in the Boy's club room in the basement of the Mount Pocono Fire Hall.

Portland

A MEETING of the officers of the Alumni Association of the former Portland High School will be held Saturday at 8 p.m. at the home of Miss Margaret Stine on State St. Plans will be made for the annual banquet and a date set. All officers are requested to be present.

Children's Day will be observed in the Portland Presbyterian Sunday School on June 16. The time will be announced at a later date. The Baptist Sunday School will present Children's Day program Sunday, June 9, at 10:30 a.m.

Miss Joyce Rusling, of Bethlehem, spent the weekend at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Rusling.

Pvt. Ivan Fisher of the United States Army of the Third Infantry Division of Fort Benning, Ga., is spending the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Fisher.

The Methodist Sunday School is planning for Children's Day which will be held on Sunday, June 9. It will be held at 10 a.m. in combination with the worship service.

Mrs. Rodger Mansfield, who had been a surgical patient at the Osteopathic Hospital at Allentown, returned to her home on Monday.

County Farmers Eligible To Vote In Referendum

MONROE COUNTY farmers were told yesterday who will be eligible to vote in the June 20 wheat marketing quota referendum.

D. H. Griffith, chairman, Monroe County Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Committee, put it this way: All persons are eligible to vote in the June 20 quota referendum who will share in the 1958 wheat crop from a farm in the commercial wheat area on which the wheat acreage to be harvested, plus any acreage to be placed in the wheat Acreage Reserve, will be more than 15 acres.

Point

Griffith pointed out that such farmers are eligible to vote even though their names are not on the County ASC registers. Farmers eligible to vote include those who are entitled to share in the proceeds of the wheat crop as owner-operator, cash tenant, standing rent or fixed rent tenant, landlord of a share tenant, share tenant, or sharecropper. A guardian, administrator, executor, or trustee who engaged in the production of wheat may vote, but the person for whom he is acting will not be eligible to vote.

Griffith also explained that where a farmer's eligiblity to vote cannot be proved immediately, he may nevertheless vote a "challenged" ballot, and if the farmer is judged "eligible" from the facts presented, his vote will be tabulated as valid. The determination must be made within four days after the date of the referendum.

New Signs For Highways

TRENTON, N. J., May 22 (AP)—The state Highway Department today announced a new type of sign to warn motorists they are approaching a traffic circle.

The new signs are diamond-shaped with a yellow background color and black lettering. They bear the word "Circle" and a circle is drawn on them.

Your Horoscope Today

FOR THURSDAY MAY 23, 1957

March 21 to April 20 (Aries)—Develop more perspective in planning present programs. Rid these of details which are unessential and time-consuming. Heed advice of "knowing" heads.

April 21 to May 21 (Taurus)—Don't fall into a lethargic attitude. You'll only lose ground that way. Control emotions, making them work for, not against you. Complete unfinished tasks NOW.

May 22 to June 21 (Gemini)—If controversial subjects arise, be discreet, diplomatic. Study day's plans. Do they fill true needs? Once your goal has been determined, proceed with dispatch.

June 22 to July 23 (Cancer)—Check your performance regularly to determine how effective your methods. Your likeable personality is your best salesman. First impressions are lasting, so put your best foot forward and reap rewards.

July 24 to August 23 (Leo)—A moderate sort of day that can be good or otherwise, depending on your approach and handling of situations. Give your talents a break. Be systematic and you will achieve.

August 24 to September 23 (Virgo)—While planetary influences may aid, you can't leave everything to them. Switch from your easy-going normal routine to a go-getting pace. There's satisfaction in a job well done.

September 24 to October 23 (Libra)—You should have little difficulty if you carry out duties in a gracious, cheerful manner. Reading, research, study favored. Avoid waste motion, carelessness.

October 24 to November 22 (Scorpio)—Do not let irritations deter you from completing assigned tasks. There's much to be accomplished. If perturbed, call on your common sense and humor to help you over the rough spots. Have cheer!

November 23 to December 21 (Sagittarius)—Your aspects augur for success if what you attempt is reasonable, honorable. Do your best; family, loved ones are counting on you.

December 22 to January 20 (Capricorn)—Give encouragement to those who are indecisive and wavering and you'll gain in the doing. The world is always looking for leaders. Be one of them and you can improve a mediocre day.

January 21 to February 19 (Aquarius)—Results of efforts may not be immediately noted. Don't lose heart, however; press on more assiduously. Good effort, properly directed, is always rewarded eventually.

February 20 to March 20 (Pisces)—With discreet, intelligent management your outlook can be favorable in both personal and business matters. Let no good opportunity get by. Stress essentials.

YOU BORN TODAY are loyal, likeable, dependable; a blessing to your community, a big help to those in trouble or illness. Never underestimate the good that true knowledge and further education can bring you and yours. Strive always after honorable attainment and don't neglect your own needs while helping others to a better life. Cultivate your talent for music, literature, acting, any of the arts.

Both Sides Contribute Fuel

HARRISBURG, May 22 (AP)—Both Republicans and Democrats contributed fuel over the weekend to the boiling budget controversy with one side lauding paring efforts and the other condemning them.

Gov. Leader assailed proposed GOP reductions as a "meat-ax budget cut" while a top lawmaker on the other side contended they would provide "enough funds to continue the present level of expenditures."

Nurse Killed In Accident

ABINGTON, May 22 (AP) — A 46-year-old nurse was killed last night in an auto collision on Byberry Rd., Huntingdon Valley, as she drove home from work at Frankford Hospital.

She was Mrs. Stella Rhodes, whose auto collided with another car driven by Donald Dove, 24. Dove told police he skidded on a grade wet with rain.

All 45 Sitting Judges In Pennsylvania Nominated

HARRISBURG, May 22 (AP)—Pennsylvania voters nominated all 45 sitting judges who are seeking new terms on the bench.

Altogether 51 Municipal, Orphans and Common Pleas Court judges and six associate judges, were selected in yesterday's primary election to make up the November slates.

Thirty-two judges, generally incumbents, were assured election when they were nominated by both Republicans and Democrats.

Under the state election code only judicial candidates can file as nominees for both parties.

Three Couples Seek Licenses

THREE COUPLES have applied for marriage licenses at the office of Prothonotary N. Henry Fenner.

They are Edward Robert Wooleever, East Stroudsburg, and Norma Jacquelyn Speier, Southampton, Pa.; Claude Andrew Batchler, RD 1, Mount Bethel, and Pauline Marlyn McArthur, Stroudsburg; and John Edwin Andrews, Freemansburg, and Nancy Lees Almond, Bristol.

Suspending Operation

MEXICO CITY, May 22 (AP)—Officials say the government-operated Clasa movie studios are suspending operations to ease the competition on private studios, which face bankruptcy.

Dr. John G. Gill

Rider Official To Speak At Bangor High

BANGOR — Officials of the Bangor Area Joint High School have announced that Dr. John G. Gill, vice president of Rider College in Trenton, N.J., will be guest speaker at the annual commencement exercises to be held for the Class of 1957 in the high school auditorium on Tuesday, June 18 at 8 p.m.

Dr. Gill will speak on the theme, "The Responsibilities of American Citizenship." Arrangements for the annual function are being made by a committee composed of Martha Sintson, Alice Fenner, Sandra DeMarcantonio and Janeen Wills assisted by Mrs. Homer Osborne, class adviser.

The speaker attended the Woodberry Forest Preparatory School in Virginia; received degrees from Washington and Lee University, Lafayette College, Rutgers University and Columbia University. In addition to being vice president at Rider he is a member of the Trenton Banking Co., and a member of the Bordentown Military School board of trustees.

He is a member of the National Education Assn., Eastern Business Teachers Assn., American Assn., of School Administrators and the Eastern Assn., of Professional Schools for Teachers. He is a former Governor of Kiwanis; a member of the following masonic orders, Scottish Rite, Tall Cedars and Shrine; the Elks, Moose and Sons of the American Revolution.

He has been listed in Who's Who in America; America's Young Men; Who's Who in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware; Who's Who in American Education; and the Biographical Directory of Leaders in Education.

MR. AND MRS. Charles Dyson of East Stroudsburg, visited the latter's grandmother, Mrs. Helen Hanna.

Mrs. Laura Deubler and Mrs. Walter Waltz have returned home after being patients at the General Hospital, East Stroudsburg.

Deborah and Ricky Keenapple of White Haven are spending the weekend with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Getz.

Daniel Kerrick occupied the pulpit of the Methodist Church Sunday morning. The pastor Rev. Neil Faucett, is attending the Philadelphia annual conference held in the Arch St., church in Philadelphia.

Allen Waltz and sons Ronald and Dennis attended the "Open House" at the Tobyhanna Signal Depot on Sunday afternoon.

The park at the Tobyhanna bridge has recently been sold. The new owners are making considerable improvements. They expect to enlarge the swimming facilities and will have a life guard. This lovely picnic area was completely destroyed during the flood of August 1955. The skating rink will be restored later.

Mrs. J. M. Stack with several friends from Wilkes-Barre are spending some time at Atlantic City.

Mrs. Peter Hawk of Fern Ridge spent several days of last week in Wilkes-Barre.

Mrs. Mildred Frogge R. N. of the General Hospital, East Stroudsburg spent the weekend at her home here.

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF MONROE COUNTY, PENNA.

NOTICE is hereby given that an application will be made to the above Court on the 3rd day of June, 1957, at 12:30 o'clock, P.M., E.S.T., for the purpose of obtaining a charter for a proposed non-profit corporation to be organized under the Non-Profit Corporation Law of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, approved May 5, 1933, as amended. The name of the proposed corporation is Strawberry Hill Fishing and Hunting Association. The purposes for which it is to be organized are to promote and encourage among the members thereof social enjoyment and athletic sports, particularly the athletic sports of angling, or fishing with rod, hook and line, and hunting and shooting, according to law, and to propagate by artificial means or otherwise, fish and game, and preserve the same, and also for these purposes to own personal property and to own and hold in fee simple, or for any less estate or interest, lands, tenements and hereditaments to the value and amount permitted by law. This is a corporation which does not contemplate pecuniary gain or profit, incidental or otherwise, to its members. The Articles of Incorporation have been filed in the Office of the Prothonotary of the above Court.

NEW EQUIPMENT — The new 750-gallon pumper belonging to Acme Hose Co., East Stroudsburg, is pictured above. The truck cost $18,400 and passed the test. It has a 300-gallon booster and high pressure nozzle. The company has bought four trucks since 1950. The oldest truck in the company is a 1942 model. (Staff Photo By MacLeod)

ESSTC Baccalaureate To Be Held Sunday At College

BACCALAUREATE SERVICES for East Stroudsburg State Teachers College seniors will be held Sunday at 3 p. m. in the college auditorium.

The speaker will be Rev. Colin F. Miller, dean of the chapel and professor of philosophy and religion at Hamilton College, Clinton, N. Y.

Rev. Colin F. Miller

Rev. Miller was born in Scotland in 1911. He was educated in the schools of Glasgow and his college and graduate work were done at the University of Glasgow.

He was licensed to preach by the Glasgow Presbytery in 1935 and ordained at Auchtergaven, Perth, Scotland in 1937. He came to the U. S. in 1948 as an exchange pastor. A year later he returned to his church at Auchtergaven.

Reputation

In 1950 he was called to Knox Presbyterian Church in Ottawa, Canada. After seven years there he accepted his present position at Hamilton. He has won an enviable reputation for his speaking ability and is in wide demand as an orator.

Joining him in the ESSTC baccalaureate service will be a local Presbyterian minister, Rev. John A. Bollier, pastor of Stroudsburg First Presbyterian Church, who will give the invocation and benediction.

The college chorus will sing "America, the Beautiful," "Let Us Break Bread Together" and "O, Be Joyful in the Lord."

GOP Agrees On Slash

HARRISBURG, May 22 (AP)—The biggest job of budget-cutting in the Commonwealth's history wound up today with Republican legislative leadership reportedly agreed on a hefty slash of a tenative $84,400,000.

The ax fell heaviest—by 30 million dollars—on the $221,100,000 appropriation Gov. Leader asked for the Welfare Department. Other cuts range from 10 millions for Public Instruction down to $200,000 for the Treasury Department.

A GOP source, who asked not to be identified, disclosed figures showing that 16 of 30 state agencies would see their budgets reduced in the Republican sponsored general appropriations bill to be introduced next week.

Last Rites Held For M. D. Young

FUNERAL services for Marvin D. Young, 77, of Merry Hill Lodge, Cresco, were held at 1 p.m. yesterday at the Baker Funeral Home, Bloomsburg, with Rev. William F. Wunder officiating. Burial was in the New Rosemont Cemetery, Espy.

Pallbearers were members of the Bloomsburg Masonic Lodge. They were Edwin Kramer, John Risewick, Charles W. Baker and C. D. Laning.

Local arrangements were made by the Lanterman Funeral Home.

Building Of Glass

TOKYO, May 22 (AP)—Yomiuri Hall, a spectacular nine-story modern building of tile and glass, has been opened by Tomiuri, one of Japan's major newspapers. It houses a department store, concert hall, TV studios and a roof garden.

Hanlon Wins Verdict In Scranton

By The Associated Press

THREE Pennsylvania mayors lost renominaaion bids in Tuesday's primary election while the mayors of Pittsburgh and Scranton, seeking unprecedented fourth terms, defeated their opponents hands down.

Twenty-three cities will elect mayors next November. But only 13 incumbents will be on the ballot.

Defeated incumbents are Democrat Edward C. Corcoran of Beaver Falls, Democrat Frank Binda of Jeannette and Republican Allen M. Wolfe of Sunbury.

Mayor David L. Lawrence of Pittsburgh, a democratic national committeeman, had little trouble beating former congressman Theodore L. Moritz.

Scranton Mayor James T. Hanlon, also a Democrat, swamped Edward Lavelle, a former policeman at the State Capitol in Harrisburg.

In the general election Lawrence will face John A. Drew and Hanlon will be opposed by Harry E. Lewis.

Motorcyclist Fatally Injured

BUFFALO, N. Y., May 22 (AP) — A 22-year-old motorcyclist was injured fatally today when his vehicle struck the rear of a bakery truck and he was thrown into the path of an automobile.

The victim, Kenneth Stapleton, was dragged for about 20 feet along the pavement before the car could be stopped.

Final Totals For Treasurer

CORRECT TOTALS for the Stroud Township election for treasurer Tuesday featured Frank J. Weller with 187 votes and George Lashak 73.

The final totals were incorrectly carried yesterday.
